Valachi Claims

Gambling Tie In Las Vegas

WASHINGTON (AP) — Joseph Valachi swore today that Vito Genovese, his old boss in a crime syndicate, has "lots of interests" in legalized gambling in Las Vegas, Nev.

He said he understood that Genovese has "a tie" with the gambling operations of Meyer Lansky in Las Vegas.

Mail Storage Car, Contents Are Damaged

Extensive damage to the contents of a sealed storage railroad mail car enroute from St. Louis to Kansas City resulted about noon Monday when fire broke out shortly after the train left Jefferson City.

The blaze was doused by the Centertown Fire Department, which was tipped off by the railroad agent at the California depot that a blazing car would be put on a siding in town.

Storage mail normally includes various sorts of merchandise, parcel post shipments, and miscellaneous. Ordinarily, personal letters are not included, according to postal authorities.

The car was originally filled in Chicago, officials said.

Many items found in the area were replaced in packages and put aboard the car.

Several items of jewelry, including at least two valuable watches, were reportedly found.

The fire is believed to have started as a result of an overhead brake, according to a special railroad agent at the scene.

Bags of merchandise and goods were soaked with water and thrown on the ground near the damaged car.

Khrushchev May Have Enough Grain

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev has told the Russian people large amounts of wheat are coming from Canada and Australia. He hinted he might not need U.S. wheat.

The premier's statement was in a speech published tonight in Izvestia.

There have been reports Soviet officials also want to buy American wheat but Khrushchev said:

"If we use bread economically, the resources we now have will be sufficient for the normal supply of the population."

Khrushchev's remark did not, of course, rule out the possibility the Russians might buy U.S. wheat to build up a reserve — or to win friends in the United States.

Genovese, convicted on a narcotics charge, is now in the Leavenworth federal prison. Valachi has testified that Genovese never, theless still bosses New York operations of a nationwide crime syndicate.

Valachi, in his second day of testimony before the Senate Investigations subcommittee, was questioned by Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y. Javits ask Valachi whether it was true that Genovese has "lots of interests in gambling" in Las Vegas.

"Yes, sir," said Valachi.

Javits: "As far as you know, is Vito Genovese still in Las Vegas?"

Valachi: "Yes, senator," and named Lansky as one of those with whom he said Genovese is associated.

Javits: "They are associated and it persists to this day?"

Valachi: "Yes, sir."

Javits then sought without success to explore for some inside facts about the death of Abe Reles, which Valachi had mentioned in testimony Friday.

The Friday hearing Valachi had sought to illustrate his contention that mobsters in jail can arrange the murder of associates on the outside.

He cited the case of two witnesses who, he said, met untimely ends while Genovese was awaiting a murder trial. He mentioned then that Reles had been "thrown out" of a hotel window and killed in New York, while waiting to testify.

Javits, quoting Valachi's testimony that "they threw him out," asked:

"Who was 'they' . . ."

Valachi clearly uncomfortable under the questioning, said: "That was the rumor. Let's put it this way—whoever was in charge."

Then, as Javits pressed for a better answer, Valachi declared: "The police threw him." But he said all he really knew about it was that "the boys" of the mob had told this story.

"You believed it?" Javits asked.

"Yes, I did."

Wheat Sale To Russia Is 'Nearer'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., expressed belief today that President Kennedy may decide within 72 hours to lift restrictions for the sale of wheat to Russia.

Humphrey, the assistant Senate Democratic leader, told a news conference after a White House meeting of party chieftains with Kennedy that he has urged the President to permit private exporters to handle any such sales.

"The consensus of leadership at the White House meeting was in support of sales of wheat stocks to the Soviets and to other countries in their orbit," Humphrey said.

He said that "inevitable political static" will follow any decision of this nature. But he said this might be minimized if sales were made through regular export channels and not on a government-to-government basis.

Humphrey conceded that some action might have to be taken to bar transfer of U.S. grain from Russia to Cuba and the possible transfer of some of it to Communist China.

He said it is his understanding that the Soviets want about 115 million bushels of wheat at a cost to them of about $200 million. He said he sees the possibility that the Russians may also purchase flour if the wheat deal goes through.

Humphrey said Kennedy gave no indication of his reaction to the wheat proposals.

Meanwhile, ten Republican House members from wheat producing states asked Kennedy to clarify the U.S. position on such a deal.

Six Freight Cars

Derail Near Marshall

MARSHALL, Mo. (AP) — Six cars of a Missouri Pacific freight train derailed today near Stanhoe, about three miles north of Marshall.

Railroad sources said the cause was not known and that first reports made no mention of anyone injured. The engine remained on the track.

The accident occurred on the so-called river route, used mainly by freight trains. The Missouri Pacific's other route serving this section is via Sedalia and is used by passenger trains.

The freight train was en route from St. Louis to Kansas City via Jefferson City. A wrecker crew was being dispatched from Kansas City.

Alarm Bells On the Flow Of Dollars

Dillon Addresses Group of World Finance Ministers

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States appears to have put the brakes on the steep climb of its international payments deficit, Secretary of the Treasury C. Douglas Dillon told the world's finance ministers today.

The deficit—the difference between what Uncle Sam spends abroad and what he takes in—set a record of $3.9 billion in 1960, eased down to $2.2 billion in 1962, then set off alarm bells by soaring to an annual rate of $4.2 billion in the first half of 1963.

In an address prepared for the annual meeting of governing boards of the International Monetary Fund and World Bank, Dillon explained the administration's taking steps to reduce the flow of dollars and he added:

"We can already see indications that the deterioration in our accounts during the first half of the year is being arrested."

Dillon endorsed American-proposed studies of the international financial structure but he added "I would like to make one point crystal clear:

"The United States does not view possible improvements in the methods of supplying international liquidity as relieving it of the compelling and immediate task of reducing its own payments deficit."

Speaking shortly before Dillon, the new managing director of the $15.5 billion fund also said it would be "wise and prudent" to begin a groundwork for future expansion of the world's currency resources.

The director, Pierre - Paul Schweitzer, gave qualified support for the proposals for studying possible needed changes in the payments system, provided the changes are within the framework of the monetary fund.

For the governors representing nearly 100 countries, Dillon painted a generally bright picture of the American economy.

Schweitzer announced earlier that IMF will undertake the staff study of the problem which U.S. officials foresee—a growing overall shortage of gold and dollars available to governments to support a rapidly expanding volume of world trade.

Clemens Designated State Dairy Farmer

WATERLOO, Iowa (AP) — Eighteen-year-old James Clemens of Stet, Mo., was named America Star Dairy Farmer Monday night at the National Dairy Cattle Congress.

The competition was for members of the Future Farmers of America.

James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forsythe of Stet and operates a 320-acre farm with 50 head of dairy cattle. He graduated from Stet High School in the spring.

The team representing New York won the national 4-H judging contest held in connection with the congress, and Iowa State won the intercollegiate championship.

Military Pay Hike Bill Okay By House; Sent to President

On Tax, Civil Rights

No Good Reason For Bills' Delay

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic congressional leaders after consulting with President Kennedy today said that there is no valid reason why Congress can't pass both the tax and civil rights bills this session. They said every effort will be made to do so.

However, earlier reports indicated that the administration has abandoned plans to try to hurry up Senate Finance Committee action on the tax cut. This apparently reduced chances of passing it this year.

House Speaker John W. McCormack of Massachusetts said that: "No two programs are more essential to the well being of the nation."

Without the proposed $11 billion tax cut, he said, the economy cannot meet the demand for jobs posed by an exploding population.

Without enactment of the civil rights bill, he said, the nation will diminish morally.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana echoed the speaker's sentiments. He said there is no intention to pass either the tax bill or the civil rights bill alone but to pass both before the congressional session ends.

McCormack and Mansfield, flanked by other Senate and House Democratic leaders, talked with newsmen after their weekly breakfast session with President Kennedy.

There appeared to be a link between today's strong stand for pushing both tax and civil rights measures to enactment and a statement over the weekend by Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, a probable leader for the Republican presidential nomination next year, that Kennedy would have to choose between a tax cut and civil rights bill for enactment in this session.

Valley Park Victim Dies in St. Joseph

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A man hit by a car died in St. Joseph's Hospital in suburban Kirkwood Monday from injuries suffered in the accident. He was Daniel Wolf, 66, of suburban Valley Park.

The accident occurred near Wolfe's service station Sept. 20. Police said witnesses told them Wolf ran into the side of the auto.

Army Units Join Algerian Rebels

ALGIERS (AP)—Units of the Algerian army today began joining the dissident troops of rebellious Col. Mohand Ou El Hadj. The colonel called for a decisive fight against President Ahmed Ben Bella's government.

A government officer in Tizi Ouzou, capital of the Berber area of Kabylie which is the nerve center of the revolt, said most noncommissioned officers and men in the area have deserted.

Informants in Tizi Ouzou said all was quiet in the city and virtually all troops disappeared from the streets.

Small convoys were seen heading toward the mountains where Ou El Hadj has been organizing his stronghold.

Ou El Hadj called on officers and men of his 7th Military Region "to join us in our combat."

"The time has come to engage in a decisive struggle against the dictatorial regime," the appeal said.

There was no immediate comment from the government in Algiers. It appeared to know little about the situation in the mountainous region, some 60 miles east of the capital.

Ben Bella sought to rally the Algerian masses against the threat to his one-man rule.

Effective Date Today; Will Cost $1.2 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House sped to President Kennedy for expected prompt approval today a bill to raise military pay an estimated $1.2 billion a year.

The compromise measure passed the Senate last week.

Its effective date is today.

The raises, largest in history, would average 14.4 per cent and range up to $120 monthly.

Even so, government officials said that thousands of low-ranking personnel probably would continue to seek charity or outside jobs.

The basic pay of recruits, for example, would go up only $5 a month to a new scale of $105 monthly. Counting subsistence and living quarters allowances, many of them would still end up with annual incomes of about $2,400 a year.

Most of the increases would go to officers and enlisted personnel in the middle pay grades—those at points in their careers at which they face decisions on whether to continue in the military life.

The bill is a compromise between earlier measures passed by the House and Senate. It would bring raises as high as $120 a month for majors, lieutenant commanders, senior sergeants and chief petty officers.

Other increases include: captains and Navy lieutenants, $115 a month; sergeant majors and equivalent ranks, $55; corporals and their equivalent ranks, $35.

The recruits, privates, corporals and sergeants, and corresponding Navy ranks, with more than two years service would get boosts ranging from $15 to $40 monthly.

In addition, men in combat areas like South Viet Nam would receive an extra $55 a month and servicemen who must leave their dependents at home would receive $30 a month more.

The increase would be the first in basic military pay since 1958. Reservists and National Guardsmen would share in the increases, getting more money for drills and training duty.

Other provisions:

1. Most persons now receiving military retirement pay would get a 5 per cent cost-of-living increase.

2. Military doctors and dentists would get an increase of $50 at their sixth year of service and $100 at their 10th year.

3. The secretary of defense would have the authority to decide whether foreign duty pay should be continued for service people on duty in Hawaii, Alaska, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

It is the men in the lower enlisted ranks, many with a wife and several children, who have been drawing welfare payments and free surplus food or seeking outside employment in some parts of the nation.

Officials pointed out that eligibility for surplus food, the food stamp program and welfare grants is determined by the states and local communities. In most instances this information is kept confidential. But many of the lower ranking military personnel can qualify for such charity.

All of them also receive $31 monthly for subsistence and from $55 to $105 monthly for quarters.

Even so, their annual incomes will range from about $2,400 to under $5,000 a year, unless they draw special hazard duty or other extra pay.

James Foy Arraigned For Robbery Charge

TRENTON, N. J. (AP)—James A. Foy, on parole from a sentence for an $18,000 bank robbery at Advance, Mo., in 1959, was arraigned Monday on a charge of holding up a savings and loan association in Trenton.

Foy was paroled from the Missouri Penitentiary in January after less than four years of a 10-year sentence. He is 29 and had been living near Burlington, N. J.

The savings and loan association in Trenton was held up Friday morning by two men, who escaped with $2,200. Foy surrendered to police Sunday after the get-away car was traced to his friend, Nancy Cartledge, 26, of Leavittown, N.J. She was arraigned as a material witness after police quoted her as saying she loaned her car to Foy.

He was held in jail pending a preliminary hearing Thursday on an armed robbery charge.

Guarded Summit Approval

Lord Home Warns Advance Planning Must Be Complete

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — British Foreign Secretary Lord Home gave guarded approval today to the Soviet Union's proposal for an 18-nation summit meeting on disarmament before June 30.

Home warned, however, in a speech before the U.N. General Assembly that a number of clear directives would have to be drafted in advance if such a meeting is to have any value.

Key points that should be agreed upon, he said, are non-dissemination of information about the making and use of nuclear weapons, stationing of observers to guard against surprise attack and progress toward abolition of nuclear delivery vehicles.

"My government will gladly join in any preliminary discussions which in turn could lead to such a meeting as Mr. Gromyko (Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko) described, and give it a better chance of showing results," Home said.

He blamed the "deep schism in ideology between the Communist world and the rest" for the "comparative failure of the United Nations Organization to develop collective security. . . In the long run the only sure guarantor of peace."

"Now there is a sign which may herald a new chapter of cooperation between the Soviet Union and the West which could in its turn have a most profound influence on the conduct, usefulness and efficiency of the United Nations," he said.

Home noted with satisfaction that Soviet Premier Khrushchev in recent months has repeatedly declared that to interpret Communist doctrine in terms of world war is wrong and is folly.

Home said he would welcome agreement between the United States and Russia to prevent the spread of mass destruction weapons to outer space.

"The atmosphere for disarmament negotiations would then be immeasurably improved," he said.

After his assembly speech Home was to lunch with Gromyko and continue the Western probe of Russian intentions.

Western diplomatic sources speculated that Gromyko is in no hurry to push for a solution of East-West problems because his government is preoccupied with internal difficulties and its dispute with Red China.

They said, however, that Gromyko might bring up with Home today, or with Secretary of State Dean Rusk Wednesday, the Soviet proposal for a nonaggression pact between the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the Communists' military bloc in Eastern Europe.

Gromyko didn't mention this Soviet idea in his first discussion here with Rusk and Home Saturday. He is to talk further with Rusk at dinner Wednesday night.

Gromyko may also pursue the Soviet proposal for an exchange of observers to lessen fears of surprise attack.

Western sources anticipated that Gromyko would seek to link this with some other plan that has figured in previous East-West discussions. But until he spells it out, they said they could not know whether it might be acceptable to the West.

The three foreign ministers and the heads of their U.N. delegations dined at the U.N. Monday night as guests of Secretary-General U Thant. No announcement was made after the dinner.

The Western theory on the Soviet Union's diplomatic pause is that the Kremlin has not made up its mind how to shape its foreign policy pending developments in its row with Peking.

Answers
Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: I enjoyed the letter from the flat-chested school teacher who "filled in with cotton what God had forgotten." It was an amusing letter and seemed to make sense when I read it, but now I'm not so sure.

I'm a fairly attractive 18-year-old girl—another one of those whom "God has forgotten." I have been tempted many times to go to a lingerie store and buy myself an improved figure, but one thing held me back. What effect would such deception have on a husband when he learned he had been tricked? Would he feel cheated and hold this trickery against his wife? I hope my letter doesn't sound too stupid to print. I really would like an answer.—READY FOR STUFFING.

Dear Ready: No REAL man would attach any importance to this whole cotton pickin' issue.

Go to the lingerie shop, Honey, and take care of what God has forgotten.

Dear Ann Landers: What can I do about a 46-year-old wife who thinks she's a teenager?

Our 17-year-old daughter is a sensible, popular gal whose friends, both boys and girls, enjoy congregating in our rumpus room. We are not objecting—in fact, we're happy to have them here, but I do believe that my wife should not hang around (wearing Carpi pants and a low-cut blouse) the entire evening and behave like one of the kids.

My wife is an excellent dancer and is up on all the latest, but our daughter tells me she finds it embarrassing when her mother does the mashed potato and the horse, the rabbit, the monkey and the rest of those foolish dances.

My wife insists she is really chaperoning the kids without letting them know it. I would like to see her views on this. Thank you.—TWINKLE TOES' HUSBAND.

Dear Husband: Chaperoning my eye. Your wife is reliving her girlhood and giving that 17-year-old a run for her money.

Parents SHOULD be at home when their teenagers entertain but they should not plunk themselves in the middle of the group and try to be one of them.

Mothers who are young in appearance, and lively hoofers as well, should make every effort to cut down the voltage in the presence of their daughters' boy friends. Often without realizing it, they are competing with their daughters and this spells deep trouble.

Dear Ann Landers: I have been married for 30 years to a man who is turning into an over-sexed alcoholic.

He drinks almost a case of beer every night and even more on weekends. When I tell him he is becoming an alcoholic he points to his work-record (he has not missed a day in six years) and insists that people cannot be alcoholics if they stick to beer and work regularly.

I admit it's amazing that his work-record is so good. I also find it amazing that he can be so amorous just before he passes out—which he does almost every night.

Is it possible that he is right and I am wrong? Can it be that a person who drinks only beer is safe from alcoholism even if he does pass out regularly? He says beer makes him feel good but he insists he has never been drunk in his life. How about this?—AGGRAVATED EDNA.

Dear Aggravated: Your husband is full of hops. Beer contains alcohol and a person can get knee-walking drunk on three bottles or less—depending on his threshold of tolerance.

Beer drunks are especially difficult to help because they usually deny that they are alcoholics. And there is no help for a person who refuses to admit that drinking is a problem.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Mrs. Mikel took the apple to the office of the Olathe Daily News, where staff members cut open the rest of the apple and found a second penny.

Sparling-Lindemann Vows Repeated

Miss Barbara Sparling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sparling, Cole Camp, became the bride of Mr. George Lindemann, son of Mrs. Juan Green, Windsor, Saturday afternoon, Sept. 7 at Antioch Baptist Church. The Rev. Boyd Eversole performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a blue satin dress, white accessories and a white corsage.

Mr. Lloyd Sparling was best man of honor. Her gown was pink and she had accessories of white.

Mr. Lloyd Sparling was best man.

After the ceremony, the couple left for a four day wedding trip through Indiana, Illinois and Kentucky.

The bride was graduated from Cole Camp High School in 1963. Mr. Lindemann is a 1959 graduate of Hughesville High School and is bookkeeper at J. H. Rogers Lumber Company. The couple will reside in Cole Camp.

Fall Roundup Cub Scout Pack Meeting Theme

Cub Scout Pack 60 held its first meeting of the year in the form of a "Fall Roundup" in the Whittier gym.

The guests of the evening were Mike Ballard, assistant Scout executive, and two council representatives from the Lake of the Ozarks Council, Gardner Buckner and Henry Scutter.

A film, "What Is Cub Scouting," was presented to the parents and the Cub Scouts.

Three members from the Whittier School PTA, Mrs. Paul Albin, president; Grant Cox, Parent and Family Life chairman, and Mrs. Francis M. Ream, hospitality, were asked for help with registering of the boys. Thirty-nine boys were registered that night, each one being brought by his parents.

Dens were formed and some mothers volunteered their services to be den mothers as follows: Mrs. Otis Hammond, Den I; Mrs. Paul Albin, Den II; Mrs. Helen McNew, Den III; Mrs. Francis Ream, Den V; Mrs. Richard Forgeson, Den VI, with Mrs. Nadine Harmon as assistant.

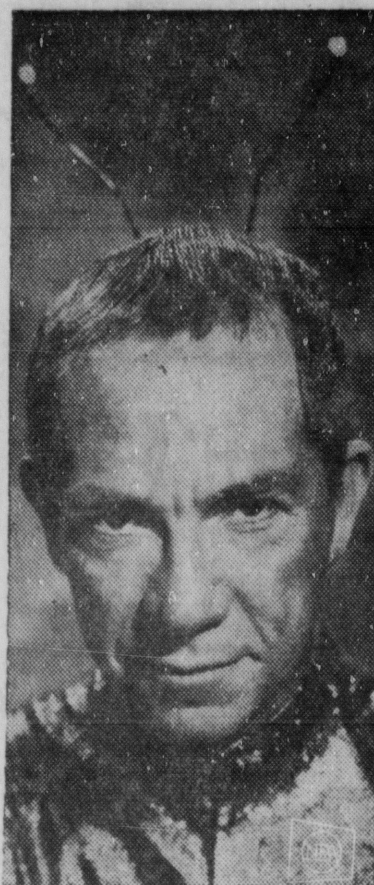

The Webow leader will be Jim Barnes. The pack leaders are: Cubmaster, Richard Forgeson; assistant cubmasters, Paul Anthes and Jim Barnes; institutional representative, Otis Hammond.

The pack committee was chosen and voted on with positions going to Jim Barnes, chairman, Mrs. Otis Hammond, secretary; Francis Ream, treasurer; Paul Anthes, advancement; Otis Hammond, training; Mrs. Francis Ream, public relations; and Paul Albin, organization and extension chairman.

Refreshments were served by members of the PTA, with Mrs. Grant Cox, Mrs. Paul Albin, and Mrs. Francis Ream hostesses for the evening.

Wertz Gives Program For Rotary Club

Fred Wertz, Sr., a native of Russia, who has lived in this country for the past 52 years, gave an interesting account of his recent return to his homeland with his wife, who is also a Russian by birth, before members of the Sedalia Rotary Club Monday noon at Hotel Bothwell.

Wertz told of his visits with relatives, of the freedom of travel and activities which he had experienced. Following a talk concerning conditions of the country and a display of articles used in daily life in Russia, he showed colored slides of his visit.

The speaker and his wife, who was seated at the head table, were introduced to the club membership by Rich Johnson, September program chairman.

Harry Walch, president, presented W. D. Hill, a new member of the club.

Guests presented by Don Barnes were: the Rev. G. Atkins, Rotarian, Springfield, Mo.; John Tilden, Rotarian, San Francisco; the Rev. Father Green, a native of Donegal, Ireland, new assistant priest at St. Patrick's Church, guest of James Denny; the Rev. Father Albers, new assistant priest at Sacred Heart Church, guest of Arnold Fischer; Lt. Peter Frisca, WAFB medical corp, guest of Dr. L. S. Geiger.

James Denny led in group singing with Miss Lillian Fox at the piano. Invocation was given by Rev. Albers.

Bogey Show Terms Him Unforgettable

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—"Unique, unforgettable, powerful and exciting" were only a few of the glowing adjectives used Monday night to describe the late Humphrey Bogart in an illustrated story of his acting career on NBC.

The half-hour show, composed of lively scenes from Old Bogart movies, newsreel film and some home movies, was the first of a new series called "Hollywood and the Stars."

The basic appeal of the program is its nostalgia. The film clips are woven together with considerable skill and wit. For instance, there was a lengthy sequence devoted entirely to death scenes played by Bogart during the period when as a heavy in gangster film after gangster film he was inevitably cut down in the climactic scene.

The narration accompanying the excellent pictures was read by Joseph Cotton. It was reverent but slightly high-flown and never caught the frank, earthy quality of the subject.

At one point, however, the narrator wisely let the pictures make their own significant point. It was a newsreel account of Bogart's funeral in 1957. Before the cameras walked, one after the other, three of Bogart's good friends—Errol Flynn, Gary Cooper and Dick Powell.

The series undoubtedly will prove popular, particularly with older viewers who remember the days when movies were not only big and exciting but when movie stars were larger than life.

One of the more interesting viewing prospects will be comparing the Oct. 13 "Judy Garland Show" with last Sunday night's CBS premiere. Although Judy came off beautifully, the surrounding show proved something of a shambles.

It was the work of Norman Jewison, the series' new producer and a bunch of new writers pulled in after the original producer, George Schlatter, along with most of his writers, quit the show after four or five had been taped. The disagreement, obviously, concerned the hour's format.

Next Sunday's show also will be a Jewison effort, undoubtedly because CBS brass wants to establish a couple of "regular departments." The departments are, it seems, that tea party session, which didn't work out at all the first time, and the business with the trunk at the window, which hardly seemed worth the effort.

The first of Schlatter's shows will be used, according to present plans, the following week.

The undisputed big star of television for the next few days, of course, is that horsehide sphere. NBC will start its exclusive coverage of the world's series at 12:30 p.m. (EDT) with a 15-minute pregame short followed by the big event.

"Apollo: Journey to the Moon" is the title of an NBC news department special about the space program to be seen tonight (10-11 EDT). The rest of the networks' schedules is regular programming—viewer's choice.

Mrs. Fred Staley reported on the art of framing pictures at the Sept. 25 meeting of Striped College Extension Club at the home of Mrs. Velton Dabner.

Preceding the meeting, a dessert luncheon was served. Mrs. N. E. Siegel and Mrs. Staley assisted Mrs. Dabner.

Roll call was answered with "Where I Started School." Mrs. Denzil Fischer gave a report on the council meeting.

A game was played. Mrs. Irene Harrier was a guest. Eighteen persons attended.

Pictures will be framed at the 1 p.m. Oct. 7 meeting at Goodwill Chapel. The program will have an international theme.

Best Seller Report

NEW YORK (AP)—The British Book Centre here says it has sold 2,000 copies of Lord Denning's report on Britain's Profumo-Keeler scandal.

The $2 paperback book deals with John Profumo, who resigned as war secretary in Britain, after admitting he lied when he denied having an affair with call girl Christine Keeler.

Autograph Is An Art For Player

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "When you're in baseball, autographing is an art," said Maury Wills, shortstop for the National League champions, the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Wills was in the office of his manager autographing copies of his book, "It Pays to Steal."

"A ballplayer has to learn how to write his name on anything," he said. "You have to sign every size of paper; some kids tear a piece into small bits so each one can get an autograph. Signing a baseball is an art in itself."

Signing autographs is one of the fringe areas of a big leaguer's life. Wills, the fleet base stealer is appearing Oct. 10 on Edie Adams' ABC show, playing "Casey at the Bat" as it might be he and his folk singers co-star with Jane Powell for three weeks at the Sahara in Las Vegas.

"I'll play banjo and sing," said Wills. "I started playing the ukulele when I was in minor league ball in Spokane. A fellow player had one and he wanted a transistor radio, which was a prize for getting four hits in one game. When I won it, I traded him for the ukulele."

When Maury stepped up to the majors, he graduated to the guitar and then the banjo. "I used to play it on the bus after we won a game," he said.

He admitted that he and the six-man combo could get bookings all winter. But that would be a mistake, he said.

"These sidelines are fine for a ballplayer," he said. "But some guys get so busy with the sidelines that they forget their main job is to play baseball."

First Nuclear Satellite Up, Company Says

BALTIMORE (AP) — The first U.S. satellite powered wholly by a nuclear generator has been launched, the Martin Co. said today.

The missile manufacturing company in response to inquiries said a satellite launched in California Saturday contained its SNAP 9A generator. The initials stand for systems for nuclear auxiliary power which Martin has been developing for the U. S. Navy.

A SNAP generator by Martin was in the navigational satellite launched June 29, 1961, but was not the sole electrical source for the four transmitters on board.

SNAP 9A also was developed for use in a navigation satellite system. It weighs 27 pounds and puts out 25 watts of direct electricity. The fuel is plutonium-238. It is designed to operate for five years. The nuclear generator is only 10 inches long and 20 inches in diameter.

The Air Force, which launched the satellite, would not say if it achieved orbit. It said it was sent up by a Thor-Able-Star rocket combination.

MPSC Authorizes KC Fare Hikes

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—The state Public Service Commission today authorized Kansas City Transit Inc. to raise its adult fares to 30 cents straight or four tokens for $1.10.

The PSC also said the transfer charge should be reduced from the present 3 cents to 2 cents. And the commission ordered the bus utility to continue its regular weekly reporting of its revenues, the number of passengers using the buses and so on.

The utility asked for an increase in the adult fare from 25 cents to 30 cents, a boost in children's fares from a dime to 15 cents and an increase in the transfer charge from 3 cents to a nickel.

Transit said it needed the additional revenue to offset the impact of a new contract it signed with its union employees last July. It said without the increases it would lose money every day.

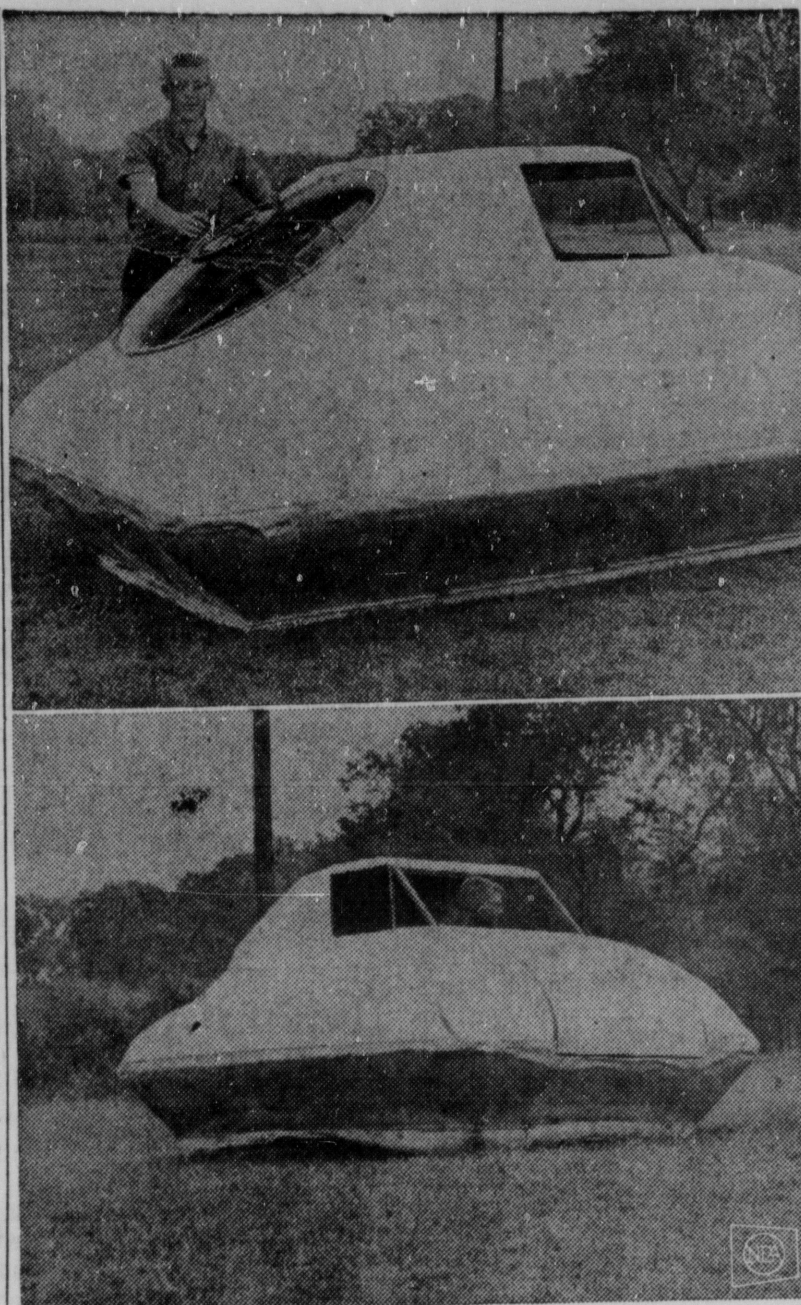

Cache of Dynamite Found By Youths

ST. LOUIS (A) — Two boys found 40 dynamite sticks, 100 blasting caps and 35 additional detonators while they were playing Sunday on the banks of the River des Peres.

Police withheld information about the find until members of the Army Corps of Engineers demolition unit at Granite City, Ill. removed the explosives about midnight.

The River des Peres borders the south St. Louis City limits. John Luechtefeld, 13, and Freeman Pender, 16, told police they did not touch the explosives because they had seen a television commercial warning against it.

No Change In Attitude Is Noticed

LEAVENWORTH, Kan. (AP)—The warden of the Leavenworth federal prison said today there's been no change in Vito Genovese's attitude to indicate how he feels about the crime investigation in Washington.

Warden J. C. Taylor said Genovese reads the newspapers and "I don't think there is much question but that he knows what is going on before the Senate committee."

"I don't know if he saw any of the pictures of Valachi on television or not," the warden said.

"He has not expressed any opinions particularly about it one way or another. If he has any feelings about what is going on he isn't showing them by any change in his attitude or what he says."

In hearings before the Senate Investigations subcommittee, mobster Joseph Valachi has named Genovese as the "boss of bosses" of La Cosa Nostra, nationwide crime syndicate.

The 66-year-old Genovese was transferred to Leavenworth 15 months ago from the Atlanta prison, where he and Valachi were cellmates. Genovese is serving a 15-year term as a narcotics racketeer.

For the last 12 months Genovese has been a patient in the prison hospital suffering from a cardiac ailment and high blood pressure.

How sick is he?
Taylor said his condition is serious or he would not be kept in the hospital. He is confined to his bed and eats only the strict diet prescribed for heart patients everywhere. He occasionally is allowed to get up and sit in a chair for brief periods in the hospital ward.

"As far as the other prisoners are concerned, they couldn't care less about what is going on before the committee or about Genovese," Taylor said.

"They've got their own problems just being in prison and we haven't seen any reaction at all."

The warden said there have been no attempts by either attorneys or relatives to communicate with him or visit him since the testimony before the Senate committee. The last time Genovese had any visitors was a little more than two weeks ago, he said.

Runs for Mayor Again

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — City Councilman Hugh Tudor is running for mayor—again—and he says it probably will be his last race, win or lose.

This not only is Tudor's fifth attempt to win the mayor's office, it also is his 25th campaign for public office—all the way up to Congress. He ran for City Council 10 times before he finally was successful last year. That was the first time he ever won an election.

How much of a gambler are you when it comes to health care bills?

There's a 50-50 chance someone in your family will require hospital care this year. Do you flip a coin to decide whether to budget for help with unexpected health care expenses? Or, do you take the intelligent step of planning ahead?

Perhaps you are already among the more than 62,000,000 Americans who wisely insist on protecting their financial security by prepaying the cost of unexpected hospital care through Blue Cross and the more than 52,000,000 Blue Cross members who have Blue Shield to help with the doctor's bills.

If so, you already know that Blue Cross and Blue Shield is your best dollar-for-dollar protection when an accident or unexpected illness means health care bills to pay. If not, you should get acquainted with these facts:

Up-to-date Blue Cross expresses important benefits largely in terms of services needed, not fixed dollar allowances. Thus, your membership automatically increases in value as the cost of hospital care continues its predicted climb from the current average of $34.00 per day. In addition, the Kansas City Blue Shield "Tri-Level" program offers protection which means many doctor bills paid-in-full for persons of average income.

Write today for full facts.

With one family in every two across our nation expected to have a member in the hospital during 1963, you cannot have Blue Cross and Blue Shield protection "too soon." See your Blue Cross and Blue Shield Group Leader at work—or use the coupon below. There is no obligation.

There is no age limit in BLUE CROSS and BLUE SHIELD!

Shepley Runs For Governor, GOP Ticket

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Ethan A. H. Shepley, emphasizing that Missouri must have an "effective two-party system," Monday became the first Republican to enter the 1964 gubernatorial race.

The former chancellor of Washington University, civic leader and attorney announced his expected decision at a news conference at his suburban Clayton home. It came following "many gratifying assurances of support from leaders in the party and from others."

The chairman of the Republican Central Committees of St. Louis and St. Louis County, Milburn Shaw and Donald Stohr, recently gave their personal endorsement of Shepley.

The Republican chairman of the two largest counties in southwest Missouri, Gene Taylor of Jasper County and Del Caywood of Greene County, endorsed Shepley Monday night after learning of his candidacy.

Shepley, in announcing his decision, said "this state must have leadership from an effective two-party system."

"We will elect Republican officials throughout the state in 1964, starting with strong leadership from the executive mansion in Jefferson City and extending outward from there through the General Assembly, county councils and courts, municipal offices and party organizations."

Shepley resigned his post of director and chairman of the board of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, saying the position would be inconsistent with his candidacy for public office.

Five Democrats have filed for governor. They are: Lt. Gov. Hilary Bush of Kansas City; Secretary of State Warren Hearnes of Charleston; Milton Morris and Michael Kennedy of Kansas City, and Charles Curry of Kansas City, presiding judge of the Jackson County Court.

Casino Held For Refusal To Testify

TOMS RIVER, N.J. (AP) — Frank Casino, reportedly named by Joseph Valachi as the "finger man" in a gangland slaying, was held in jail here for New York authorities.

Casino, 59, was arrested at his Beach Haven summer home Monday on a warrant accusing him of refusing to testify before a grand jury.

Dist. Atty. Frank D. O'Connor of Queens of New York City said Casino is suspected of having knowledge of the slaying of Anthony (Little Augie) Pisanò, 38, shot to death Sept. 25, 1959.

Casino was named in information given to the Justice Department by Valachi, a convict testifying before a Senate committee about the underworld organization known as Cosa Nostra.

O'Connor's office said it believed Casino's arrest was the first to result from information given by Valachi.

Casino was charged with criminal and civil contempt for refusing to testify Sept. 11 before a grand jury investigating the Pisanò slaying.

Tuition Stay In All-White South Schools

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—An associate justice of the U.S. Supreme Court has stopped state tuition grants for white children attending private segregated schools in Virginia's Prince Edward County.

In Washington Monday, Justice William J. Brennan Jr. granted a stay requested by Negroes of a U.S. 4th Circuit Court of Appeals decree which had opened legal channels for the grants.

He said the stay would remain in effect until the Supreme Court resolves this and other issues involved in an appeal of the Circuit Court decision. Counsel for the Negroes expect to file the appeal by Oct. 15.

Last August the Circuit Court held that U.S. District Judge Orin R. Lewis had erred in ruling that public schools in Prince Edward County may not remain closed as long as free schools elsewhere in Virginia remain open.

The Appellate Court also reversed Judge Lewis' decision that no tax credits and tuition grants from public funds may go toward private schooling in the county as long as its public schools are closed.

The Prince Edward School Foundation has sponsored private segregated classes for white children since the public schools were closed in 1959 to avoid court-ordered integration.

Since the stay reinstates Judge Lewis' injunction against use of state tuition grants, white parents will have to bear the financial burden of the private school.

Nixon Affirms Rocky, Barry Pledged to Run

NEW YORK (AP)—Richard M. Nixon says Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller made it "quite clear" during a chat three weeks ago that he will seek the 1964 Republican nomination for president.

The former vice president says that as a result of the talk he has no doubt that Rockefeller will make the race. Nixon added that he believes Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona also will be a candidate for the nomination.

"Both are so heavily committed," he said, "that it will be impossible for them to pull back." Nixon, the 1960 GOP nominee, told newsmen Rockefeller "implied" that he wanted Nixon's support for the nomination. But, Nixon added: "I am not committed to any candidate at this time."

Asked whether he might emerge as a dark horse candidate if a convention deadlock developed between Rockefeller and Goldwater, Nixon replied:

"I'm not going to be a candidate in 1964. There will be no dark horse candidates. I will support the candidate chosen by the Republican convention."

Nixon added that he will "not be part of any stop-Rockefeller or stop-Goldwater movement."

Gamble's Suit For Separation Is Unresolved

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP) — A court attempt to reconcile type-writer heiress Gamble Benedict Porumbeanu and her ex-chauveur husband Andre failed today after a two-hour closed session.

Gamble 22, asked the court for a legal separation. She charged her 37-year-old, Romanian-born husband with adultery, neglecting his family and squandering part of the $20 million Remington typewriter fortune she inherited from her step-grandmother, Mrs. Katherine Geddes Benedict of New York.

She also asked full custody of their two children.

Gamble's attorney, Eugen Curti, said nothing had been settled. He said the hearing was broken off at the request of Porumbeanu's lawyer, who said he wanted to study the evidence.

Curti said another hearing would be necessary, at the request of Porumbeanu's lawyer, but the couple would not have to be present. He said proceedings in Gamble's separate divorce suit probably would not begin before Christmas.

Gamble and Porumbeanu eloped and were married in April 1960 over the opposition of Mrs. Benedict and a court order forbidding them to see each other.

• Accidents

There were no apparent injuries in a three-vehicle accident on Highway 50 west of Sedalia at the Howard Quarry at 6:55 a.m. Tuesday.

Vehicles involved included a 1963 Buick driven by Floyd Lay, Knob Noster, a 1950 Chevrolet driven by Vernon Curry, Knob Noster, and a 1957 Ford truck driven by Thomas Toliver, 414 North Engineer. All were headed west.

According to the Highway Patrol, Lee's Summit, the vehicles were slowing down for a slow-moving truck, when the Toliver truck hit the rear of the Curry car, knocking the Curry car into the rear of the Lay car.

Willie Abney, 405 West Johnson, was treated at Bothwell Hospital Tuesday morning for lacerations to the chin and lower lip. He was treated by Dr. J. V. Brazos, then released.

• Circuit Court

Melvin Clay Hall filed a petition for divorce against Wanda Mae Hall in Circuit Court Oct. 1. Durely & Keating are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

The city of Sedalia paid $8,000 for one lot and dismissed a condemnation petition toward another in Circuit Court Monday.

Condemnation proceeding had been instituted June 24 against Frank and Dorothy Dee Ault and Alfred F. and Emma W. Berkey for two lots on the south side of East 13th, just east of Bothwell Hospital. The lots were to be used for a hospital parking lot.

The $8,000 was paid to Mr. and Mrs. Ault for their corner property and the amount was derived at by three commissioners appointed by the Circuit Court to appraise the land. The hospital board had previously acquired the lot adjoining the Ault property and with the Berkey lot planned a parking area three lots deep.

The petition to acquire the Berkey property was dropped and the parking lot will now cover only the two lots.

Marjorie Paxton was granted a divorce from James Walker Paxton in Circuit Court Monday. O. E. Brown was her attorney.

• Police Reports

An attempted break-in at the Wallace Grocery, Osage and Cooper, was investigated by police about 10:30 p.m. Monday. The officers found the thief or thieves had knocked out a door panel, then opened the door, but had apparently been scared off by the arriving officers.

The cigarette machine at the Broadway Drive-in was reported broken open Monday night. The coin box, containing $3 or $4 was taken, it was reported.

M. W. Wilkie, Route 5, reported to police Monday that either Friday or Saturday while his 1962 Studebaker was parked on a local parking lot someone jimmied the lock on the driver's side.

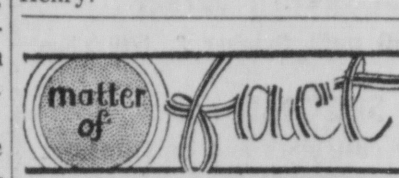

Joe Moulder, 1229 South Stewart, reported to police Monday that the speedometer was stolen off his son's bicycle while it was parked at Smith-Cotton High School.

Mrs. George Thompson, 906 South Barrett, reported to police about 4 p.m. Monday that her son David, 2, accompanied by a black poodle, had been gone from home about 40 minutes. They boy was located about 4:15 p.m. at a house in the 900 block on Barrett.

Holdup Attempt Fails; Victim Returns Fire

KANSAS CITY (AP)—An apparent holdup attempt that failed Monday night would have netted the would-be bandits only office supplies. They didn't even get that, and one of the men may have been wounded.

Jack Burroughs, 45, manager of a money order firm, left his office about 7:45 p.m.

"I noticed what I thought was a couple of kids walking very slowly," Burroughs said. "I crossed the street, and just as I got the car door open someone yelled something."

Burroughs said he turned and saw two men with masks. They opened fire at him from about 75 feet away.

"They fired possibly a half dozen times. Two bullets struck the rear of the car. They fired two or three times before I fired back. I fired five times, I know."

A witness said one appeared to have been hit and the other man helped him to his feet as they fled.

Burroughs said his little case had office supplies but no money in it. He said the men may have expected him to run from their gunfire, dropping the case.

NEW YORK (AP)—General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, vigorous and erect at 83, was being honored by a group of Masons when he got into a friendly argument with the master of ceremonies.

Charles W. Froessel, a former judge, mentioned that the general was born in Little Rock, Ark. MacArthur interrupted: "I am a Virginian."

Then, he explained: "It was intended that I should be born in Norfolk, my mother's home. But my father, being an Army man, was suddenly ordered to Little Rock, Ark., where I was born."

"But the Norfolk papers were loyal and in the paper's headlines it said Douglas MacArthur was born when his parents were away."

The distinguished achievement medal of the Grand Lodge of Masons of New York State was presented to MacArthur in his suit at New York's Waldorf Towers.

PARIS (AP)—Silver medals of the City of Paris have been awarded to Astronaut John H. Glenn of the United States and Cosmonaut Yuro Gagarin of the Soviet Union. Gagarin, in Paris for the International Astronautic Congress, accepted his medal at city hall. A Representative of the U.S. embassy accepted Glenn's.

Cleanest Wheat In World, Dirtiest At Foreign Ports

KANSAS CITY (AP)—American wheat is the cleanest in the world when it leaves the farm, but it is among the dirtiest when it reaches a foreign market, a farm leader said today.

Clifford R. Hope of Garden City, Kan., former congressman and former president of Great Plains Wheat Inc., made that assertion in a statement at a hearing on proposed changes in the grade standards for wheat.

The hearing was the first of four scheduled by the Agriculture Department. The others will be Friday in Minneapolis; Oct. 8 in Portland, Ore.; and Oct. 11 in Toledo, Ohio.

Present grade standards were set in 1917 and are essentially unchanged.

The proposed changes would reduce the amount of trash, defective kernels and other grains that are mixed with wheat, according to grades.

Proponents contend the United States must clean up its wheat to increase sales abroad because Canada, Australia, Argentina and Russia are marketing cleaner wheat.

Grain handlers oppose the changes, claiming their costs would be increased too much by cleaning the wheat.

Hope, who resigned as president of the non-profit Great Plains Wheat in June, said the old standards actually encourage grain terminals to mix undesirable grain with good wheat.

He said a survey made by Great Plains Wheat showed wheat shipped to Europe from Australia contained 6.7 per cent defective material; Canada 7.6 and Russia 8.6, while U.S. wheat ranged from 10 to 14.2 per cent.

Hope pointed out that a Common Market buyer pays for the extra impurities and pays ocean freight on it.

"Under those conditions it is obvious which wheat the European is going to buy," he said.

Hope said the U.S. grain trade doesn't "understand the problems involved and doesn't care to learn about them."

"This attitude is reflected in the old cliché which we've heard so often lately and will hear again today 'that anyone can buy any quality and kind of wheat he wants if he will pay the price,'" Hope continued. "Under our present grading system, with its broad tolerances, he can't do it if he orders by grade alone. He must write specifications, which he doesn't like to do and isn't used to doing. Furthermore, it isn't necessary to do it because he can go to Canada and order by grade—and he knows what he is going to get."

"But the most discouraging thing about the phrase is the attitude of mind which it reflects on the part of the trade. It implies that the prospective buyer should and will come over here and shop around. He won't."

"Export trade in any competitive field simply isn't built up that way, as is shown by the history of all our highly successful export businesses like International Business Machines, Goodyear, General Motors and Johnson's Wax. They've spent millions in research and promotion to find out what foreign buyers want and how they want it."

"Our competitors are much smarter than we. The Canadians have spent years developing their product for the export market. Australia and Argentina have done the same...."

Hope said he believes those opposing the changes "are lacking not only in imagination but in business acumen."

Two USDA representatives spoke in favor of the grade changes. They were Raymond E. Vickery, director of the grain and feed division of the foreign agriculture service, and Walter A. Davidson, director of the grain division of the agricultural marketing service.

"The situation," said Vickery, "is that we just don't deliver the clean wheat that the buyer wants and that our competitors are supplying."

"These facts cannot be ignored. U.S. grain standards need to be revised and strengthened if the United States is to compete more effectively in the commercial world wheat market."

Ground Broken By Indians For Three Projects

CHEROKEE, N.C. (AP)—The eastern band of the Cherokee Indians broke ground on their reservation Monday for three projects totaling $1 million and dedicated a $300,000 shopping center.

Ground breaking ceremonies were held for a new $300,000 Vassar Corp. plant that will eventually employ 200 Indians to make women's hair care products.

Ground was turned for the start of the $670,000 Soco water and sewer system which will serve 350 permanent residents of the reservation and is designed to meet business development.

An all-Indian firm, the Cherokees Inc., which makes handicraft items, broke ground for $50,000 addition to its workshops.

The new shopping center houses a supermarket, laundromat, restaurant and motel on U.S. 441.

The annual Cherokee Indian fair also opened Monday.

Pettis History Group Meets At Lamm's

Members of the Pettis County Historical Society committee met Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Lamm, 1303 South Osage, for the purpose of discussing the reorganization of the Society, selecting a slate of officers, and promotion of a membership drive.

The meeting was presided over by James T. Denny, chairman, and the committee, composed of several persons who have long been members of the society, most of whom have served as president some time during the years past, and a group of very interested people who have not been members before, talked over future plans for cleaning, rearranging and labeling articles according to records.

Luther Luckett, who has been president of the Pettis County Historical Society for the past year, stressed the fact that the length of time anyone had lived in the county, or when their families came, has nothing to do with the part they would play in re-viving the historical society and the activities planned for the future.

"The people working on the 'missile project' Luckett stated, 'are just as much a part of the history of the county as I am and my family came here in 1835, for these people are making history. It isn't history now—but it will be.'"

He brought out the fact that this is something that everybody living in the county should be interested in, no matter how short a time or how long they have lived here, because they are part of the county.

Many people have items of all kinds that are symbolic of the history of the county from the beginning to the present time, but at this time there is no place to keep these things. The committee would appreciate anyone having such items to keep them until there is adequate space—for the committee has hopes of a museum building in the future.

Following the meeting, Mrs. Lamm served refreshments.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

MANPOWER: President Kennedy has launched a major study of the nation's manpower aimed at "large savings in lives and dollars."

Naming three members of his Cabinet and Selective Service Director Lewis Hershey to a task force to find out why so many young Americans are rejected by the draft, Kennedy said Monday:

"A young man who does not have what it takes to perform military service is not likely to have what it takes to make a living."

The Cabinet members are Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz, chairman; Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Secretary of Welfare Anthony Celebrezze.

Kennedy said one out of three young men is turned down by draft boards.

AID: An employee of the Agency for International Development who charged he was "railroaded out of the agency" last year and then restored to his job is resigning, saying he was sent into "exile."

Jerry M. Jackis of Charleston, S.C., said the 1962 squabble stemmed from his revelations of mingled U.S. and Soviet aid in a Cambodian hospital project.

Jackis said when he returned to the agency after a congressional investigation of the hospital incident, AID officials refused to give him an overseas assignment and assigned him to a desk job that had "absolutely no connection to my long experience and investigating ability."

Jackis, whose resignation is effective today, had been with the government in AID and various other agencies for 13 years.

Mrs. Kirks Released On $5,000 Bond On Embezzling Charge

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Mrs. Norma Sue Kirks, charged with embezzling $112,000 from the only bank in Macon, Mo., posted $5,000 cash bond Monday and was released.

She will be tried in federal court in St. Louis. The date has not been set.

Mrs. Kirks, 30 and attractive, was a private secretary at the Macon-Atlanta Bank. She has been at Menorah Medical Center since a nervous breakdown Aug. 3—two days before a scheduled examination of the bank's books.

Auditors discovered a total shortage of $178,973.

U.S. Marshal F. M. Wilson said it was his understanding Mrs. Kirks would return to the medical center for additional treatment.

Proclamation Pictures

Now, having finished off a hot dog impregnated with chili, lit up a cigar and perused our favorite daily newspaper—the one you are reading — I note on the front page that Sedalia's mayor issued two proclamations Monday from his office, one designating October as Parent-Teacher membership month, and the other marking October 8-12 for observance of National Rabbit Week.

There must be something to this thought transference business because right while I was reading about the Rabbits the date of October 6-12 rang a bell in the old noggin. Then the telephone bell did ring and it was a member of the Business and Professional Women's club calling to remind me October 6-12 was their week. Not wanting the rabbits to get ahead of the BPWC she suggested a news photographer take a picture of the mayor signing a proclamation for the BPWC, with someone in the background standing over him.

These are really corny pictures, the kind so often taken of our Missouri governors, no originality, just simply "wooden" as the news desk refers to them.

Mayor Studer issues proclamations by the dozens, which causes me to ponder, for example, what would the rabbits think about us showing partiality to the ladies when the bunnies didn't get a chance to stand on the mayor's shoulder while he wielded his worn proclamation pen and had their picture taken?

We've got to draw the line somewhere on proclamation pictures. In all justice if we continue them who then can fairly deny pictorial representation of Expectant Father's Day? Sure enough, that's in June!

Who will deny poses for canines during Frankfurter Week; the hypochondriacs during Sickroom Needs Month; Plumbing and Heating Month; National Tavern Month and National Pickle Week (they go together); Better Bedding Time; Old Maid's Week and National Cherry Week?

There are hundreds of them.

By the way National Newspaper Week is October 14-20. There'll be no proclamation pictures in this newspaper on that subject either.

Really I would rather write something nice about all of them, but a favorite will be the BPWC, sometime next week. We promise... after this bit of levity which just lent itself to a few paragraphs in the lighter vein.

Discuss Selling Wheat to Russia

DREW PEARSON
WASHINGTON — Though some Congressmen are chary about indorsing the proposed sale of surplus wheat to Soviet Russia, there was significantly little opposition when Cabinet members discussed the idea behind closed doors with members of the House Foreign Affairs and Agriculture committees.

Only one House member, Ralph Hardin, D-Ia., seemed adamantly opposed. He commented with a macabre touch: "Why not sell the Russians our surplus tobacco? They might contract lung cancer."

Republicans Frances Bolton, Ohio, and H. R. Gross, Iowa, also asked some acid questions. Inquired Mrs. Bolton: "Aren't we playing into their hands by feeding them? An Army is said to travel on its stomach. If we sell wheat to Russia, isn't this indirect military help?"

"We are now concluding a Nuclear Test ban treaty with Soviet Russia," said Gross. "If we sell them wheat to help them economically, doesn't that practically mark the beginning of the end of the cold war to protect our own economy? I would want to give this step a long, hard look before we take it."

However, two other Republicans, Robert Dole, Kans., and Robert Barry, N.Y., approved the proposed wheat shipments, with reservations. Declared Dole: "If this will help our farmers and won't hurt the country, I am for it."

Both Dole and Barry agreed with Bill Barrett, D-Pa., that it should be a "hard cash" deal of "wheat for gold" with little or no long-time credit.

"It's as simple as this: We have a surplus of wheat and Russia has a surplus of gold," declared Barrett. "Their gold will help our imbalance of payments, caused by our outflow of American dollars. If we make a Yankee deal on this basis, I don't see how we can lose. But I want to see the contract that is drawn up before agreeing to support it."

Farmers Are Favorable

Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman said that the administration asked no more than this, adding that President Kennedy wanted only to "sound out" Congress. The President himself had not made up his mind about a wheat deal with Russia, nor had the Soviets as yet made any official overtures to the U.S., he said.

"About two out of three farmers I have talked to favor unloading this surplus wheat," reported Freeman. "I think they fear that the surplus plus the recent lifting of mandatory controls on production may drive the price on wheat down to perhaps as low as $1 a bushel. That would be ruinous."

Secretary of Commerce Luther Hodges, who also attended the closed door meeting, said that American business men, as well as farmers, probably would approve a wheat contract with Russia if it improved our international balance of payments.

"As a former business man, I feel it is better to sell this wheat now, when we can do so at a profit, rather than risk a future inventory loss on the 1-billion bushel surplus," declared Hodges. "We are in an advantageous position and can push a good bargain."

"Russia is desperately in need of this wheat. They had a bad crop this year, due to weather conditions. The United States may as well get this business, rather than stand by and see Russia deal elsewhere."

Hodges added that we now sell non-strategic exports, such as machinery, etc., behind the Iron Curtain and that wheat would fall within this category.

"I can't imagine how this would hurt the American image abroad, but we can get hurt domestically if we continue to hoard huge wheat surpluses," commented the Secretary of Commerce.

Both Hodges and Freeman insisted, however, that they were not trying to sell Congress, but only "sounding out" the committees to guide the President. Nor did they indicate how such a deal might be handled, except to say that is probably would be transacted through private shippers, rather than the government.

They estimated that the total amount of wheat we could ship would be between one-third and one-half of our billion-bushel surplus. They also agreed that a straight sale probably would be the best policy, rather than shipping the wheat under the Public Law 480 program, wherein we are paid in foreign currencies.

CAPE GIRARDEAU MISSOURIAN: Timber! — It has been a long time since a 2x4 was 2x4. More likely a 2x4 is 1 5-8 by 3 5-8 and they say it drives architects wild when they have to figure multiples of 1 5-8 by 3 5-8.

The do-it-yourself amateur, too, is perplexed by this gap between name and actual measurement, and even when he's told that the 2x4 was really 2x4 before it screamed through the planer, it doesn't quite make sense to him.

The people in the West Coast Lumber Inspection Bureau think it's time to make some sense of lumber measurements. Three years of study have convinced them that the 2x4 should be 1 1/2 x 3 1/2 because the present 2x4 used in home building is 25 times as strong as it needs to be.

By further reducing the size of the 2x4, the lumber bureau says, the savings in mill and shipping costs would be from $50 to $75 in the average wood frame house built on the East Coast with West Coast lumber.

What to call the 1 1/2 x 3 1/2 will be no problem. It will always be called the 2x4.

front of all those people who didn't make it, is that you act as if you were enjoying it, even if it kills you—which you might privately prefer to what you are enduring.

The World Today

Rights Bill May Push Out Tax Cut

BBY J. W. DAVIS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Admirers of the United States Senate like to call it the greatest deliberative body in the world.

Less enthusiastic observers have been known to agree only that it is the most deliberate.

In any event, it is taking its time with the big tax reduction bill that President Kennedy declared last January — nearly nine months ago — "is urgently needed to spur the growth of our economy."

The bill, which Kennedy has called "the most important domestic economic measure to come before Congress in the last 15 years," may even get sidetracked until next year.

The $11-billion tax cut has passed the House. The Senate probably will not take it up until after it has disposed of the Kennedy administration's civil rights proposals.

Congress is under heavy pressure on the civil rights issue, and the House may pass a bill within the next few weeks.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said Sept. 14 that he intended to take whatever civil rights bill the House does pass, put it on the Senate calendar, and then call it up for debate as soon as possible.

That would mean a filibuster by Southern senators that could last no one knows how long.

Mansfield also said then that if the Senate can act on the tax measure this year, it probably will be the last bill brought up.

Mansfield laid down the civil rights priority before the killing of four Negro girls by a dynamiter in a Birmingham, Ala., church — a deed that added to already strong demands for action now.

Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N. Y., predicted last week that "this do-nothing Congress" would fail to pass civil rights legislation this year. He called for a national "black revolution" to win rights for Negroes.

The administration has been plugging for action this year on both civil rights and tax reduction.

A growing number in the Senate, however, say it can't handle both, that there just isn't time.

For example, this past weekend, Sens. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., and Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky., each said it would be physically impossible to pass both, that President Kennedy must decide which he wants.

Sens. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., and John J. Williams, R-Del., said they would like to see the tax bill delayed until January, after the administration submits its new annual spending budget.

Williams said he would be willing for the measure, whenever it is passed, to be retroactive to Jan. 1, 1964, the date set by the House for the first cuts to take effect.

This possibility of making the cuts date back to Jan. 1 could undermine arguments on the need for speed.

The Well Child

Repair of a Spinal Cyst Rests on the Extent of It

By Wayne G. Brandsfadt, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

A mother writes that her son was born with a knot about the size of a hen's egg near the end of his spine and she wants some advice about treatment and the outlook for her son's future.

This is a fairly common birth defect. It is a failure of the normal closure of the lower end of the bony spinal canal in the development of the baby. In many cases the defect is so slight that it does not show externally and is detected only on X-ray films. In such cases the child is not handicapped in any way.

Even a knot the size of a hen's egg (and some are much larger) is not likely to cause any trouble if the knot is formed by a cyst or outpouching of the spinal canal that includes spinal fluid but not any of the nerves of the spinal cord. In such cases a surgical repair or obliteration of the cyst can be accomplished readily.

This should not be done until the child is about three years old and toilet training is complete. The operation is necessary because it is hard to protect a growing child from accidental injury to the protruding cyst.

If there is any evidence of paralysis of the legs or if toilet training is impossible, you can be sure the cyst contains displaced spinal nerves. In this case the outlook for improvement is poor because no operation to restore the function of these nerves has been devised.

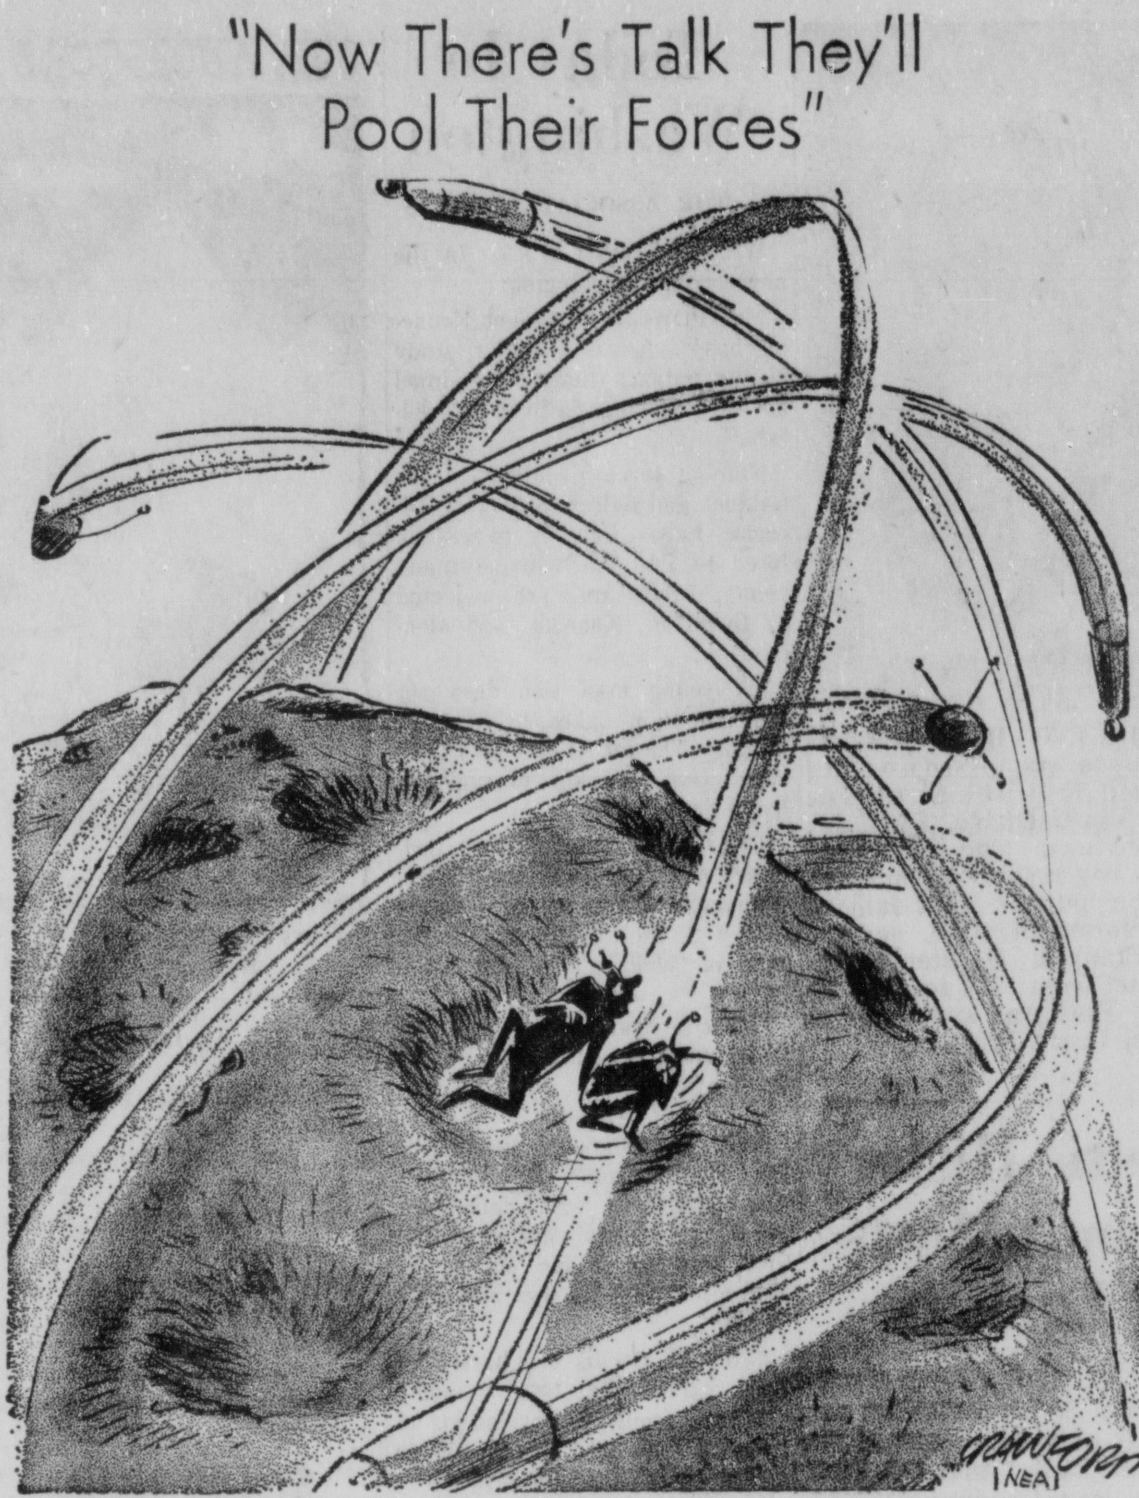

Thus, it can be seen that with this, as with many other birth defects, much depends on the extent of the defect. The best and often the only treatment for severe defects is prevention.

The mother in her next pregnancy can be helped to produce a perfect baby. New aspects of this fascinating subject are still being discovered.

One of the most recent of these is the prospective mother's need to keep up her intake of vitamin B. The morning vomiting of pregnancy is one cause for a vitamin B deficiency in pregnant women. Other causes are an unbalanced diet, overcooking—since heat destroys the vitamin—and discarding the cooking water which contains essential minerals as well as vitamins. Adding vinegar or baking soda when cooking will alter the optimum alkalinity of a food and neutralize or destroy the vitamin B.

Dr. Lyndon A. Peer and his associates in Newark, N.J., gave vitamin B supplement to one group of women in the early months of pregnancy and no vitamin supplement to the second group. The proportion of babies born with birth defects of all kinds was more than twice as high in the group that got no vitamin supplement. Add this to what we already know about the various causes of birth defects and the chances of preventing them will be even greater than before.

Government Dillydallying Increases Negro Demands

BY PETER EDSON

Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON —As leaders of the Aug. 28 March on Washington For Jobs and Freedom meet in the capital again to assess what has happened in the intervening month and to plan their future course of action, they are confronted by a confused civil rights situation in Congress.

The draft of a bill to carry out President Kennedy's civil rights reform recommendations for this year is being readied for action by the full House Judiciary Committee under Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y. He was also chairman of the subcommittee which wrote the bill.

It is obviously not going to satisfy all demands of the march organizers, meeting in Washington as members of the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights.

This is a 14-year-old biracial lobby of 60 religious, labor, fraternal and civil liberties groups working for stronger legislation.

It recently opened a Washington headquarters under its secretary Arnold Aronson for the duration of the Congressional battle. Its general chairman is Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the NAACP and one of the march organizers.

If the leadership conference decides that the House civil rights bill is as good as can be obtained this year, there may be no cause for immediate action.

If the leaders decide the bill is too weak, there will be a fight. If even a mild reform bill gets hung up in House Rules Committee, there will be protest and further demonstrations.

The general assumption is that if a good bill is cleared by the Rules Committee, it will pass the House, though not without considerable oratorical fireworks.

In the meantime the Senate had been scheduled to take up as a test case on civil rights prospects for the year an amendment to an unrelated private claims bill. It was sponsored by Senators Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., and Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill.

Their rider would make the U.S. Civil Rights Commission a permanent government agency and enlarge its powers.

The Civil Rights Commission's final report is ready for issuance and the agency is scheduled to wind up its affairs by Nov. 30 unless it is given a new lease on life.

President Kennedy has recommended a four-year extension, and this has been approved by a Senate civil rights subcommittee.

The attempt to make the commission a permanent agency and enlarge its function brought on such prompt southern opposition that the sponsors withdrew their amendment, claiming it had been introduced as a mistake. In its place they offered a simple one-year extension.

This may prevent an immediate filibuster, but one is almost sure to develop when the House-approved omnibus civil rights bill gets to the Senate by, say mid-November.

During preparations for the March on Washington its leaders announced that in event of a filibuster, march participants would be asked to return to Washington "in waves of 2,000."

These "little marches" would not confine themselves to the Washington monument or the Lincoln Memorial. Picketing of both the White House and Capitol might be expected.

An indication of what's ahead is found in a statement of Wilkins that the proposals made by President Kennedy in February are now obsolete.

"The injunctive power (of the federal government) must be extended to cover all civil rights violations," says Wilkins.

"Both Fair Employment Practices and the broadened injunctive power were pledged in the 1960 Democratic platform, yet the administration stands in the way of inclusion of these provisions in the civil rights bill."

"There are of course other features of the (House) bill that need strengthening," adds Wilkins. "The defense of voting rights could be made easier. The lagged school desegregation program could be speeded up. There should be mandatory withholding of funds from all federally assisted programs that practice discrimination."

This is the big change — increased demands by Negro leaders — that has taken place in the first month since the march.

Polly's Pointers

Sink Liner Prevents Stains

By POLLY CRAMER

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY — My suggestion is for the girls who use a color hair rinse but dread cleaning up the sink afterwards. Remove the stopper from the sink, spread a plastic garment bag in the sink, letting it come up over the sides and around the faucets. Pour the rinse into this bag and use a cup as a ladle to dip with. When the rinsing is finished spear the bag, just over the drain hole, with a rat tail comb and the color rinse will run on down the drain. The bag can be thrown away and there are no stains left in the sink. To prevent the rinse from staining your hands, wear rubber gloves.—MRS. A. N. P.

DEAR POLLY — When arranging artificial flowers in a vase with fresh greens such as hemlock, fir, huckleberry leaves and so on, place the flowers in glass test tubes (purchased at the drug store) and the stems of the flowers will not rust or discolor the water.—M. D.

DEAR POLLY — If you have broken a glass or bottle in the bathroom and think there may be some minute particles of glass lurking on the floor, darken the room and examine the floor by passing the beam of your flashlight across it. The smallest bit will gleam in the light. Also try this when looking for pins or needles.—MISS D. M.

DEAR POLLY — My medicine cabinet used to look so messy. The paper boxes of gauze and cotton always tore apart from use. I took little glass jars and put each item into a jar. Now my shelves are neat, dirt and dust cannot get in the jars and it is easy to see what is in each one.—MRS. W. V. W.

GIRLS—This is a good use for the empty baby food, peanut butter and other glass jars that foods come in. If some contain items that might be a bit puzzling to identify, such as detergents for light washing in the bathroom basin, add neat little stick-on labels. Little things like this make a neater, easier-to-keep-clean house.—POLLY

DEAR POLLY — To preserve old pictures, run clear plastic tape around the outer edges of the back of each picture. This keeps the edges from breaking off and gives them extra strength.—MRS. B. B.

We the Women

Smashing-Bad Example

by Ruth Millett,

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

There was a story in the newspapers recently I hope the country's teen-agers didn't heed.

It was all about a gay, gay party at Delmonico's Imperial Restaurant in New York, at which leading members of cafe society were invited to break up the famed hostility with pickaxes, electric drills, hammers and crowbars.

And that is exactly what the smart set did — hurling plates through mirrors, drilling holes in tables, breaking up plaster balustrades with sledge hammers. The restaurant, due for a million-dollar renovation, got the publicity it wanted out of the smash-it-yourself party.

But the idea of grown men and women getting a thrill out of such wanton destruction is a bit sickening.

When juvenile vandalism is a real problem in this country, it is disgraceful for men and women to lend their famous names to such abuse of property — even if it was by invitation.

Sure, they thought it was "cute" to tear a famous old restaurant apart. The fact that the women were wearing their jewels and Paris gowns and that the names of the pickaxe wielders came right out of the society pages must have made it all just too amusing.

But it was vandalism just the same, smashing property for the pure fun of smashing it.

And what we've been trying to teach our young people is that only an idiot takes delight in wanton destruction.

Odds On Series Flutter, Then Return To Normal

NEW YORK (AP)—The odds favoring the New York Yankees by 7½-5 returned to normal today as did the reports on the temperature of Sandy Koufax, the Los Angeles Dodgers' brilliant left-hander who will pitch the World Series opener at Yankee Stadium Wednesday against Whitey Ford.

The odds began to fluctuate as rumors flew that Koufax, who posted a 25-5 record during the season, had come down with the flu. When the Dodgers arrived in New York late Monday night, Koufax said he never had the flu only a slight cold.

"It's all over now," said Koufax. Dodger Manager Walter Alston, asked about Koufax' cold, said briskly: "Tell them he'll pitch."

While Alston was expressing no doubts about his pitching ace, he was concerned about two others, third baseman Ken McMullen and veteran left-hander Johnny Podres, who became a questionable second game starter.

McMullen pulled a hamstring muscle last Thursday and has not played since. Alston thinks the youngster will be able to start but if he cannot, Jim Gilliam will switch over to third base and Dick Tracawski, a light-hitting, good-fielding reserve, will open at second base.

Alston was highly vexed with Podres' pitching performance against Philadelphia Saturday night. The 30-year-old left-hander, who shut out the Yankees in the final game of the 1955 World Series, was pounded for eight runs and 12 hits in 2 2-3 innings. Included were two home runs.

"I wanted him to stay in five or six innings to get the work since he hadn't pitched all week," said Alston. "I left him in until it got so embarrassing I had to take him out."

The Dodgers' late arrival enabled the Yankee to engage in a long workout during which Ford, lefty Al Downing and right-hander Jim Bouton took long turns pitching. The trio is expected to start all the games, even if the series goes the seven game limit.

"Ford and Downing will pitch the first and second games here," said Yankee Manager Ralph Houk at the end of the workout. "It will be Bouton in the third game in Los Angeles."

"The club is in the best condition it's been all year," Houk said. "Mickey Mantle is running better than at any time since he got hurt and Roger Maris' back doesn't seem to be bothering him now."

There had been some talk that Houk might decide to pitch Bouton, his young 21-game winner, in the second game instead of Downing, who was hit hard in his brief outing against Minnesota Saturday. Houk dispelled that thought quickly.

"It would be silly of me to change my thinking on him in five innings after the great work he's done all season," Houk said. "The youngster won 13 games from mid-June through September and not one was a bad one."

Houk said the scouting reports on the Dodgers confirmed what everyone knows—that the Dodgers are built on speed and pitching.

"Everybody figures it's going to be a pitching series," he said, "and they could be right. But you never know. It may go the other way."

"This Dodger team cannot hit with the Giants of 1962 but we're not underestimating them. The Dodgers have fair hitting, great speed, good pitching and a better defense than we heard."

"More important, they win the important games. Our scouts have told us they looked exceptionally well in all departments in the important series against the Cardinals two weeks ago."

For Third Weekend

Some Quotes, Notes From Big Eight Practice Field

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Some quotes and notes from Big Eight practice fields as the teams reviewed the second and prepared for the third football weekend of the season:

KANSAS—"Wyoming could be a shock. They could be as good as Syracuse," Coach Jack Mitchell told his Jayhawks, 10-0 winners over Syracuse. Mitchell said he is most concerned with Wyoming's passing attack, good thus far for 13 completions in 24 attempts. Wyoming, which meets Kansas at Laramie, beat Montana State 35-0 and Utah State 21-14.

Hurley Not Too Old to Begin Career Again

SEATTLE (AP) — "I'm not too old to start over, am I?"

Deacon Jack Hurley asked the question today as he packed his bags and prepared to head south and launch a new fistic phenom on the unsuspecting world of pugilism.

Hurley has been a much-loved guest of Seattle since he came here 15 years ago to advance Harry (Kid-now grandpa) Matthews from obscurity to an approximation of fame and fortune.

Under the tutelage of Hurley—who believes the object of pugilism is to hurt and be hurt—Matthews was transformed from a tapper to a tiger. He ran an impressive string of knockout victories over people nobody knew and then attained several lucrative paydays against name fighters.

Intramural Sports For College Men

WARRENSBURG (Special) — A broad intramural athletic program for men at Central Missouri State College was announced today by James E. Odenkirk, head of the Men's physical education department.

Included in the fall programs are touch football, singles and doubles play in tennis, cross country, volleyball, and table tennis. Touch football features action in independent and fraternity league action with games scheduled four nights a week. Tennis shows approximately 60 people participating in the single elimination tournament while there are nearly 25 duos competing in doubles play. The cross country intramural meet will occur before a Mules harrier meet, possibly Oct. 19.

In independent league action, all members of the championship team receive medals. Runnerup players receive silver medals. The first place team in the fraternity loop receives a large trophy for their house, while the runnerup team gets a smaller trophy. Winners of the overall independent program are awarded small medals, while the winner of the fraternity league are honored with a trophy.

Winter term sports include basketball, water polo, bowling, foot-shooting, wrestling and badminton. Gymnastics may be added for the 1964-65 school year as may be soccer next spring. Athletics scheduled during the spring are softball, swimming, track and field, handball and archery.

Fishing Event Won By Robert Overy

Robert Overy, 1505 South Missouri, member of the Sedalia Divers Club, won first place during the spearfishing event Sept. 28, held at Broken Arrow Resort and sponsored by the Kansas City Frogman Club, Kansas City, Mo.

Overy's fish weighed 16 pounds, 15 ounces which entitled him to the first place trophy. This also entitles him to the Sedalia Divers Club trophy which was offered to any member of the club with the largest fish during the 1963 season. Donnie Kabler, Sedalia placed second.

Scores Low In Soccer Play Sunday

Action in Khourey League soccer games Sunday at Liberty and Centennial Parks was slow, resulting in low scores.

At Liberty Park, in bantam action, Freese downed Sealtest, 3-1. Sam Gravitt scored all three goals for Freese and Mike Waisner scored the single goal for Sealtest.

In the second contest, Third National shut out Jaycess, 3-0. Maurice Pitts tallied two goals for Third National, backed up by one by Eddie Lyles.

In midget action at Centennial Park, Optimist went over Adco, 1-0. Kenny Drenon scored Optimist's one point. Riley Kindel was the most outstanding player in the game, making many saves for the Optimists.

S & M Athletic Goods and Lions could not manage to score and the contest ended in a scoreless tie.

In Tuesday's action, Jaycess will meet Sealtest in bantam action at Centennial Park at 6:30 p. m. Optimists will meet S & M Athletic Goods in midget league action at 7:30 p. m. at Centennial Park.

Banks Good As New

CHICAGO (AP)—Ernie Banks, the Chicago Cubs' slugging first baseman, figures to be as good as new when the 1964 season rolls around.

Banks, one of the Cubs' all-time sluggers, suffered the worst season of his 10-year career during 1963 when he finished with a .227 average with 18 home runs and 64 runs batted in.

The 32-year-old Banks was out of the Cub line-up during the final month of the season.

Extensive examinations by Dr. Jacob Suker, the club physician, revealed that Banks had a sub-clinical mumps condition in addition to a blood infection. It all meant that Banks was run down.

"I'll be ready when the whistle blows next season," said Banks.

Hitchcock Accepts His Dismissal

BALTIMORE (AP)—For Billy Hitchcock, the cause was harder to understand than the effect.

A man of fierce pride and determination, he accepted his dismissal as manager of the Baltimore Orioles without complaint—convinced he had done his best while acknowledging he may have fallen a bit short.

But he couldn't understand why a professional athlete, playing baseball for a living, had to be prodded to produce a maximum effort.

"I've managed the way I played—to the best of my ability," Hitchcock said as the season entered its final week with his job in the balance.

On Sunday, after being told he would not be rehired for 1964—but before General Manager Lee MacPhail issued a public announcement—Hitchcock said:

"It's the manager's job to make the players put out and produce, and I guess I didn't do it."

After finishing second in 1960 and third the following year, the Orioles dropped to seventh during

Mains Brings Suit Against the Lions

DETROIT (AP)—Former tackle Gil Mains of the Detroit Lions brought a $250,000 damage suit Monday against the National Football League club, a hospital and the team physician, alleging improper treatment of a knee injury suffered in 1961.

The suit, filed in Wayne (Detroit) County Circuit Court, named Detroit Osteopathic Hospital and Dr. Richard A. Thompson, team physician, as co-defendants with the football club.

Mains hurt his left knee in a game between the Lions and the San Francisco 49ers Oct. 1, 1961. He was treated at the hospital and later taken to the University of Michigan Medical Center for surgery.

Mains said he had three operations on the knee and is crippled permanently.

Hitchcock's first season as manager and wound up fourth this year. Attendance has dropped to an all-time low.

MacPhail has offered Hitchcock a job as field director with the Orioles. He would assist MacPhail and farm director Harry Dalton scout and instruct at training camps.

Rock Hunter

Rough Ring Expected Action Is

Rough ring action is assured to night at Convention Hall as top-ranked wrestling heavyweights collide on the four - event, Legion-sponsored program.

The very presence of such ring bullies as Rock Hunter, The Stomper and Bob Geigel is enough to guarantee free-wheeling, hard-hitting action.

Hunter, who carries the Central States championship, will match strategy and power with strongman Jack Allen in a main event that promises a wide measure of mat fireworks. Hunter has never worried so much about how he scores a favorable decision, just so long as he does. A stalker who often goes after an opponent like he's hunting big game, the rugged Hunter has cleared virtually every obstacle in his path these last few months.

The title won't be at stake, but Hunter's reputation at the No. 1 man in the area will be. And Allen figures to put this to a good test as he tries to overpower the Ohioan at his own brand of wrestling. Where Hunter is fast, Allen believes he's faster and where Hunter is rugged, Allen feels he more than measures up.

Preceding that event will be a semifinal between the massive Stomper, a hulking 270-pounder, and Harley Race, 250, with good moves and power to spare.

Also matched are Bob Geigel, the boisterous Iowan who is campaigning to get back on the contenders' list for the Central States crown. In his way tonight will be Big Jim Grabmire, an imposing 265 - pounder with a wide knowledge of the roughing game.

Fleet Enrique Torres and Johnny Kace come together in the 8:15 opener.

McHan Joins 49ers

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP) —Well-travelled pro quarterback Lamar McHan has arrived to join the San Francisco 49ers as insurance to No. 1 signal caller John Brodie, still nursing an off season arm injury.

McHan is an ex-Chicago Cardinal and Green Bay Packer who played the last two seasons at Baltimore. He had been put on waivers last week.

Jeff City Site For NBA Play

Two of pro basketball's top clubs — the almost legendary Boston Celtics and the St. Louis Hawks — clash Tuesday night, Oct. 8 at the Lincoln University Field House in Jefferson City.

The two NBA powers will meet in a regular NBA pre-season game.

Boston, world champions last year and for six of the past seven seasons, will bring a 14-man squad that is rated as their toughest in eight years, even with the loss of tea mcaptain Bob Cousy.

Heading the list of Boston veterans will be all-league and MVP Bill Russell who has won the Most Valuable ward for the past three years. Since that honor was awarded him by the NBA players, it is obvious to see why he's considered the top all-around player in the game by many experts.

Tom Heinsohn, Sam Jones, Tom Sanders, KC Jones, Willie Naulls, Frank Ramsey, John Havlicek, Clyde Lovellette and Jim Loscutoff are the other Boston veterans with Naulls a recent addition from the San Francisco Warriors.

Bill Green, a 6-6 235-pounder from Colorado State, and Larry Siegfried, a former Hawk recruit who played with Ohio State during his college career, are other newcomers.

The Hawks will field a 13-man squad that also comprised two newcomers. They are Gerry Ward of Boston College and Leland Mitchell of Mississippi State, the team's top two draft choices.

Age may eventually be a factor for the Celtics but Boston appears to be as strong as ever. Naulls gives them more punch at a forward spot to go with Heinsohn, a 18.7 point a game man while Siegfried, if he makes the grade, will work with the Jones boys, Ramsey and another ex-Ohio Stater, Havlicek.

Bob Pettit heads the returning Hawks and the perennial all-league forward appears as good as ever. That's a 28.6 per game mark and one of the league's top rebounders. Add Cliff Hagan, Bill Bridges, Mike Farmer, Phil Jordan, Zelmo Beaty and Gene Tomohlen to that of Pettit and the Hawks have one of the best balanced lines in the league.

At guards, Coach Harry Gallatin can call on Len Wilkens, John Barnhill and Chico Vaughn, all of whom averaged 10 points or better last year. Bob Duffy, Ward and Mitchell are the newcomers back there although Duffy saw action in 42 games last year.

Baseballs Might Take Odd Bounce

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Baseballs take funny bounces, too. Ask Mel Harder, who was fired as Cleveland pitching coach and replaced by Early Wynn, the man he taught to pitch so well.

Harder was an institution in Cleveland—until Monday. Then Gabe Paul, the Indians' general manager, fired Harder, 53, who had been with Cleveland for 36 years, a record tenure in baseball.

The man Paul turned to was Wynn, 43, who came back this year to win his 300th major league game—and did it, although he lost two games along the way.

"Early was reluctant to take the position with us only because he didn't want anyone to think he was seeking Mel's job," said Manager Birdie Tebbetts.

"I simply told Early that Mel wasn't going to be with us next year in any case. And that if he wouldn't accept the offer to become our pitching coach, we'd bring in somebody else."

Harder joined the Indians in 1928 and posted a 223-186 record in 20 seasons as a Tribe pitcher. He was a player-coach in 1947, but had devoted full time to teaching since the 1948 season, when the Indians became world champions.

Among the pitchers Harder helped achieve success were Wynn, Bob Lemon, Mike Garcia, Herb Score and even the great Bob Feller. Now Harder is looking for a job.

"I'm checking out a few clubs," he said. "About four years ago, the Yankees and White Sox offered me a coaching position. Maybe somebody will want me now."

The Indians didn't give any reasons for the firing, but it's no secret that the front office has been unhappy about the Cleveland pitching staff.

Puzzled In An Outbreak Of Errors

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Green Bay Coach Vince Lombardi is a puzzled man. He is unable to explain the sudden outbreak of game errors by the Packers as they strive for a third straight National Football League championship.

"I can't understand it," Lombardi said Monday in reviewing statistics of the Packers' two victories and one defeat.

"We've been a team that has made very few mental and physical mistakes. This year we have had a flock of them. If we continue like this, it's going to catch up with us. We've been stopping ourselves and this must end."

En route to the NFL title with a 13-1 season record last year, the Packers had the fewest passes intercepted — a mere 13 — and lost the ball on fumbles just 15 times. In three games this season, they have surrendered the ball on nine interceptions and five fumbles.

Green Bay gave up three fumbles and two pass interceptions Sunday, but managed to pull out a 31-20 victory over Baltimore.

Willie Davis, an All-League selection as a defensive end, said he thought the Packers may be "going into games a little tight."

"We're trying to overdo this thing," Davis said. "We've always been a closely knit team. The mere fact that the offense is experiencing some difficulty means we're just going to have to hang in there tougher."

"We've got to feel that they're going to get rolling. It's only a matter of time."

The Packers are tied with the Minnesota Vikings, a game behind Chicago's undefeated Bears, in the Western Division, Lombardi is satisfied with his team's standing — although unhappy with the flock of mistakes by his offense.

Oklahoma Takes Over First Place

By JOHN CHANDLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Oklahoma Sooners, who have gone through a seven-year drought since their last championship team, took over first place by a landslide today in the second Associated Press weekly poll of the nation's Top Ten football teams.

Oklahoma, which defeated the 1962 national champion Southern California Trojans Saturday 17-12 in blistering 105-degree heat at Los Angeles, vaulted from third to the No. 1 rating by polling 36 of the 53 first-place votes from a special panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

The Trojans, who received 23 first-place votes a week ago, skidded to eighth place. Arkansas, No. 8 last week, dropped out after being defeated by Missouri 7-6.

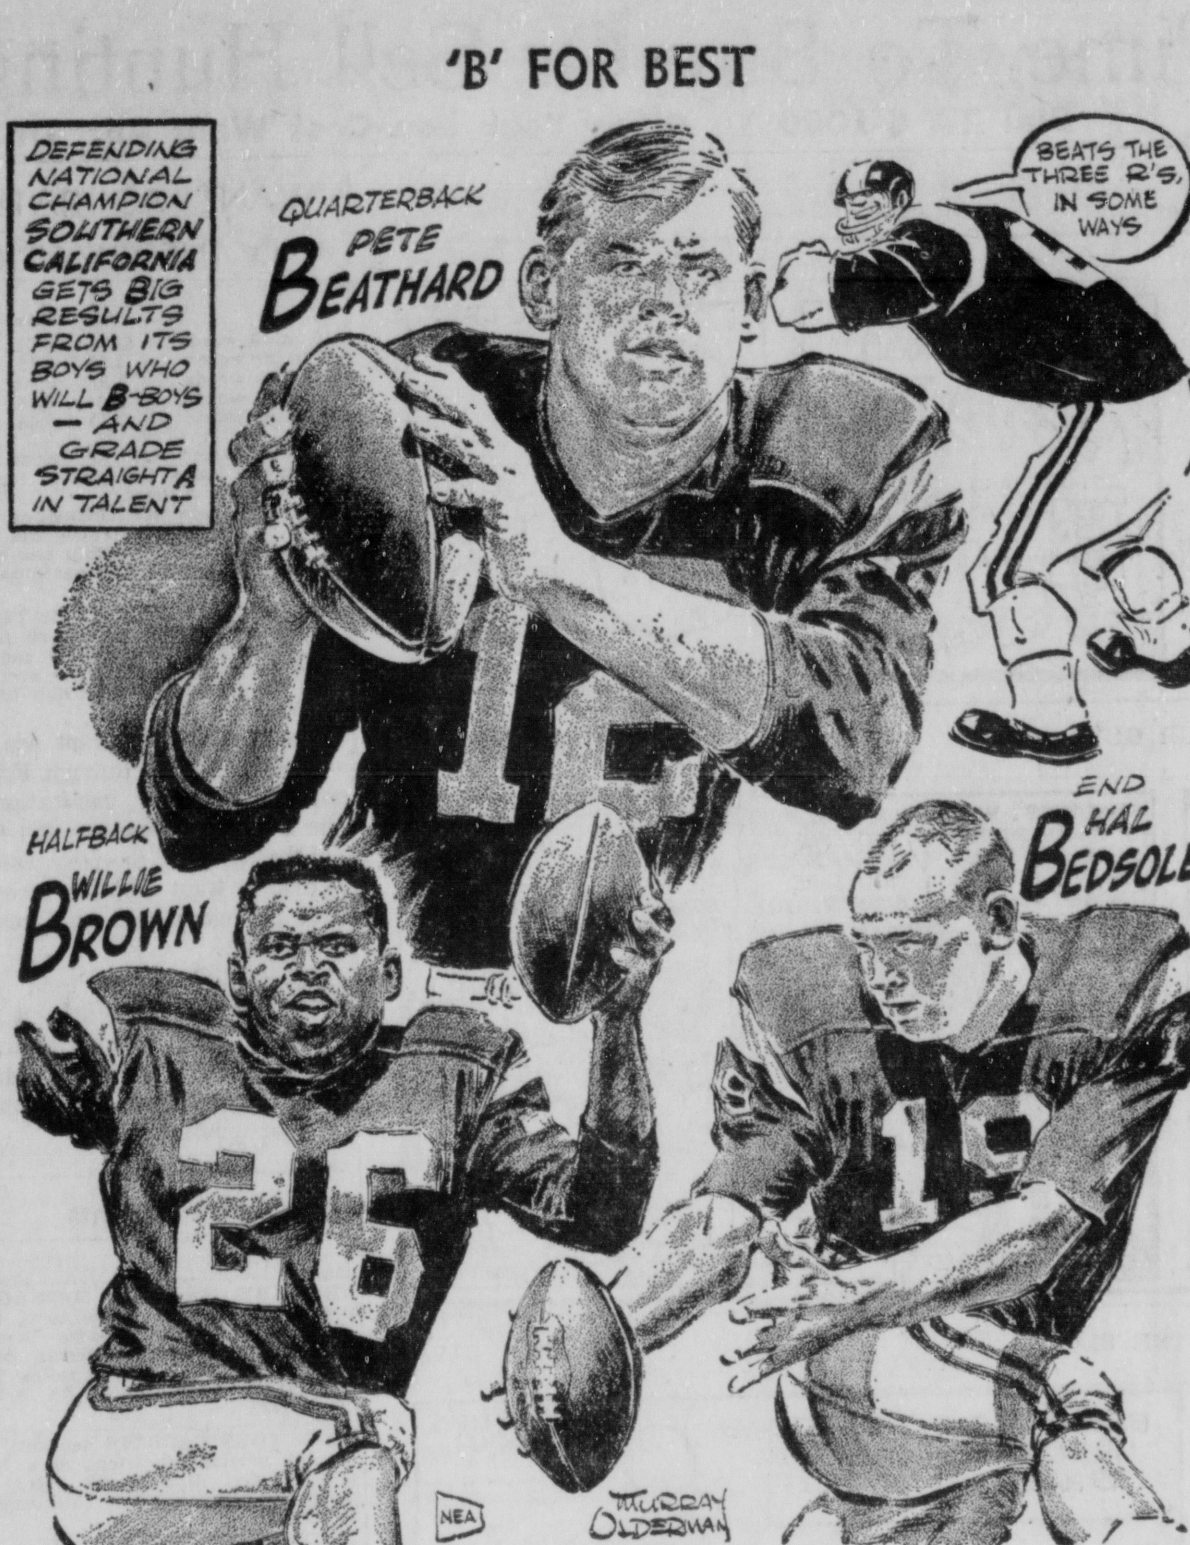

While Alabama remained in the challenging No. 2 spot, and other teams were slightly jiggled in the ratings, Mississippi edged back into the picture at the No. 10 spot after blasting Kentucky 31-7. Ole Miss, rated No. 2 in the opening poll, had dropped from the first ten after being held to a scoreless tie by Memphis State.

The top ten, with first-place votes in parentheses:

- | Team | Points |

Smith-Cotton Junior Team Is Defeated

By RONNIE COWAN

In a game which was predicted to be an extremely one-sided affair, the junior varsity of Smith-Cotton High School went down to defeat at the hands of the Jefferson City Jays by the score of 13 to 0.

Smith-Cotton, winning the toss of the coin, elected to receive. The Tigers advanced the ball to their own 35-yard line but were unable to get a first down from that point. With John Johnson punting, the Jays carried the ball to their own 45-yard line. Crouch of Jefferson City, carried the pigskin for the first Jay first down, but the Jays were unable to get any further and the locals took possession of the ball in their own territory.

After a delay of game penalty, the Tigers attempted a pass only to have Crouch of the Jays intercept it on the 17-yard line and cross the goal line for the first score of the game. With eight seconds left to play in the first period, the Jays' attempt for the extra point failed.

In the second quarter, the Tigers returned the kickoff to the 22-yard line, and were forced to punt out of their own territory when unable to get a first down. The ball was badly hiked and Johnson, the punter, ran it to the 11-yard line where the Jays took over. The Tigers were able to regain the ball, however, when Jefferson City fumbled on the ten. Again the Bengals were forced to punt out of trouble, this time sending a booming 50-yard kick to the Jay 30-yard line. Time then ran out for both teams and no further scoring was done in the first half.

The third quarter was also void of tallies for either team, but the Tigers made several close first downs which raised some hopes in the grandstand among Tiger rooters.

Crouch, the talented fullback of the Jays, made the final touchdown for his team in the final period of play, after a long series of ground gains by Jefferson City. This time the conversion was good, making the final score 13 to 0.

Hickey Is Out

Big Question of Winning Now Up to NFL's 49ers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Red Hickey is out, Jack Christiansen is in but the question is the same: can the San Francisco 49ers win in the National Football League.

Hickey, the fiery redhead who starred at Arkansas and played end for the Los Angeles Rams, quit Monday in the wake of a 45-14 loss to the Minnesota Vikings.

Hours later Jack Christiansen, out of Colorado State and a six-year All-Pro with the Detroit Lions defensive secondary, was named in Hickey's place. Christiansen joined the 49ers in 1958 as coach for the defensive backs, the same season Hickey took over as head man, relieving Frankie Albert.

Hickey said he had considered the move for a couple of weeks "unless we started winning." The loss string stands at 10 straight—two from last year's regular campaign, five exhibition games and three regular games this year.

When the Vikings buried his apparently demoralized squad Sunday in Minnesota, Hickey told President Vic Morabito he wanted out now. Morabito announced tersely Hickey's resignation was accepted.

"In this game you either win or move on," Hickey said. "It was either quit or put Vic in the embarrassing position of having to fire me." Hickey said he had no immediate plans.

Later, at a news conference, Morabito emphasized Christiansen's appointment was for only the remaining 11 games this year. He denied he was thinking in terms of Paul Brown or Y. A. Tittle for the future as the possible 49er head man.

Brown was ousted by the Cleveland Browns last year and is said to be smarting to get another shot in the NFL. Tittle was traded by Hickey to the New York Giants because "he was obsolete." Since then Tittle has become the Giants' mainstay and 49er fans have been riding Hickey for letting him get away.

Christiansen, now 34, said the current 49ers had some good players and that hustle could produce some victories. He said he would use basically the same system.

To 49er fans it was all a familiar story. After 14 seasons, the 49ers have not yet as much as won a divisional title in the NFL. Ticket sales are down, the fans who show up boo lustily and quarterback John Brodie has a sore arm.

So the question remains, even with a new coach: Can the 49ers win?

DeGrunwald, Fair-Haired Boy of the Film World

NEW YORK (AP)—Anatole DeGrunwald is the fair-haired boy of the film world today.

He did it with a simple, golden idea.

DeGrunwald got the idea after a movie company spent $40 million filming and beating the drums for "Cleopatra," starring Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton.

His idea: To make another picture using the same stars—but leaving out the Nile River and the asp—and costing $36,750,000 less to produce.

There were no costly delays, no big rows. Anatole, an old hand at handling temperamental stars, brought the picture—"The V.I.P.S."—in on time—at its budget price of $3,250,000, which includes $1 million for Miss Taylor, now her standard fee for a film.

Capitalizing nicely on the interest stirred up by Cleopatra's ordeal, "The V.I.P.S." has proved an instant hit.

It is pure marshmallow fudge, featuring a group of assorted people waiting to take a delayed flight at a London airport.

Overshadowing a series of subplots involving Orson Welles, Margaret Rutherford and Rod Taylor, is the big issue: Will Elizabeth Taylor fly away from her business tycoon-husband, Richard Burton, and start a new life with a ne'er-do-well society card sharp, Louis Jourdan?

Well, tears flow like glycerine all over the place before Elizabeth finally decides who really needs her most—her yearning husband or the weakling gambler.

But the real winner is producer DeGrunwald. His gossily spun cinematic taffy is expected to gross $16 million in America alone, up to $25 million or more on the world market. Now all Hollywood doors are open to him.

How did he pull off his big coup?

"It wasn't easy," recalled Anatole, a soft-spoken, gray-haired man with the easy friendliness of an affable English sheep dog.

"It was difficult in that everybody in the world was offering them something. Both Miss Taylor and Burton are choosy, and their business matters were terribly complicated.

"Finally, it boiled down to one thing—they liked the script."

DeGrunwald feels the astronomical sum paid to Miss Taylor was well spent.

"I'll save money on unimportant things," he remarked, "but I'll never save money on scripts or actors."

Auto Industry Turns Out Half Million Cars In '64 Line

DETROIT (AP)—The auto industry, which has turned out half a million 1964 passenger cars already, stepped up its production quotas this week to meet expected customer demand.

The 500,000th car was built Friday, making it the earliest date on which that figure had been reached in any model year.

With September output estimated at 550,000, the industry aimed at turning out 800,000 new cars in October.

General Motors had five of its assembly plants on overtime Saturday to meet dealer orders. Ford had six plants on overtime.

Chrysler, first of the auto makers to start turning out 1964 models, returned to a normal five-day work week. Studebaker worked a five-day week at normal assembly-line speed, while American Motors had its assembly lines at 80 per cent of capacity. It was still getting into full swing with its 1964 production schedules.

Charge of Lying To Federal Grand Jury Is Dismissed

KANSAS CITY (AP)—An indictment charging Manuel Becker 43, with lying to a federal grand jury in a gambling investigation, was dismissed Monday on the recommendation of U.S. Atty. Russell Millin.

Millin said Becker cleared himself by later testimony to the grand jury and gave important information about gambling in Kansas City. Becker was indicted March 22 after his first appearance before the grand jury, which was investigating the financial affairs of Morris (Snag) Klein, a Kansas City gambler.

Consular Treaty May Chip More Frost Off Cold War

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and the Soviet Union are quietly negotiating a consular treaty which could chip more frost from the Cold War and ultimately aid in any increased U.S.-Soviet trade.

The talks are under way in Moscow against a background of heightened American interest in trade with the Soviet Union. The administration is considering the possibility of selling wheat to the Soviets, a transaction some feel could be the first step in freer American-Soviet trade relations.

The proposed treaty would enable each of the two countries to open consulates in cities outside each other's capital.

If an agreement is reached, the Senate would have to ratify the pact before it could become effective, just as in the case of the limited nuclear test ban treaty.

Generally the job of a consulate is to look after the interests of its citizens traveling or doing business abroad. Although embassies have taken over some of these commercial functions, an embassy's chief mission is to represent its country in dealings with a foreign power.

Warde M. Cameron, an assistant legal adviser of the State Department, is conducting the talks with the Soviet foreign ministry. He left for Moscow after the Soviet Union recommended Sept. 14 that legal experts of the two foreign offices discuss the issue.

Although letters between President Franklin D. Roosevelt and Soviet Foreign Commissar Maxim Litvinov, which led to U.S. recognition of the U.S.S.R. proposed a consular treaty, no pact was ever concluded.

Nevertheless, the two powers had consular relations for a while. In 1941, the United States set up a consular office in Vladivostok, the big Soviet Pacific coast port, and got permission in 1947 to open one in Leningrad. The latter was never opened, however.

In the mid-1930s, the Russians opened offices in New York, San Francisco and Los Angeles. The three Soviet consulates here and the American one in Vladivostok were closed in 1948, the year of the Berlin blockade and the Soviet bloc's campaign against Yugoslavia's Tito. The immediate reason of the closings, however, was the desperate escape from Moscow's New York consulate of Oksana S. Kasenkina, a Soviet teacher, who leaped from a third-floor window to avoid returning to the Soviet Union.

Jacob Lomakin, Moscow's New

York consul, was declared persona non grata because of his role in the Kasenkina case. The Soviets reacted by closing their consulates—and requested that the United States shut its doors in Vladivostok.

Since then the embassies in Washington and Moscow handled consular functions. Mrs. Kasenkina stayed in this country and died here in 1960.

When Soviet Premier Khrushchev visited with President Eisenhower at Camp Davis in 1959, the two briefly touched on the possibility of a consular agreement.

The U2 spy plane incident put the issue into the deep freeze and although it was revived in 1962 when the United States prepared a draft of an agreement and sent it to Moscow, it remained virtually dormant until last summer.

When Secretary of State Dean Rusk visited the Soviet capital to sign the limited nuclear test-ban treaty, he brought up the question again. The Russians were interested—and sent the invitation which resulted in the dispatch of Cameron.

U.S. officials are restrained in discussing the possible outcome of the Moscow talks but concede it would be in the interest of both countries to come to terms and unburden the two embassies.

Takes a Breather

COCHABAMBA, Bolivia (AP)—Presidents Tito of Yugoslavia and Victor Paz Estenssoro of Bolivia held a two-hour meeting Monday and then relaxed at a cafe on the Plaza de Armas, the main square of Cochabamba.

Strict security precautions surrounding the Yugoslav leader's visit were released for the cafe visit and both leaders obviously enjoyed themselves.

Tito and his party are due to leave Thursday for Mexico, with a short stopover in Lima, Peru.

Balance a Problem

US Dollars Slip Abroad Through Holes In Policies

Editor's Note — The many holes in the United States' pockets through which dollars slip abroad are listed in this second of five articles by Sam Dawson, Associated Press business news analyst, on the balance of payments problem.

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Uncle Sam is financially embarrassed in his dealings with the rest of the world because for several years he's been sending more dollars abroad than he has been getting back. And yet his exports of goods and services exceed his imports by around $4 billion a year.

Some of the cause of the deficit lies in government policies. But not all of it. How then do all these billions of dollars flow out of the country?

First there are commercial imports, now costing around $16.8 billion a year, four per cent higher than a year ago.

Their total cost in dollars may rise still more as the country becomes more prosperous. Some imports are raw materials that U.S. industries will be chewing up. Some goods come in because they are cheaper than Americans can produce—and in a number of cases curbs have been put on this inflow. Others are quality or high style or novelty goods that Americans buy when they are flush.

Second, money flows out when American banks make loans to foreigners. The United States has been the fattest source for such capital. And interest rates here usually are lower than those charged by foreign banks.

Third, Americans have been buying foreign stocks and bonds. The government says that sales here of new long-term foreign securities are now running at an annual rate of $1.7 billion.

Also, corporations or well-heeled individuals with idle cash have been sending dollars to Europe for short-term securities paying higher interest than obtainable here. This outflow is called hot money.

And whenever there's much talk about the dollar being under pressure because of the balance of payments deficit, some speculators send their dollars abroad to buy gold or securities or for deposit in banks.

Fourth, American corporations have been spending dollars abroad to build factories and distribution centers. Motivations are cheaper production costs, or crawling under tariff walls other nations build against American-made goods, or getting close to fast growing consumer markets abroad.

But these invested billions abroad aren't all on the deficit side of the balance of payments. A lot of dollars flow back as earnings from these plants.

A fifth source of the outflow of dollars lies in the large amounts of American securities, real estate, factories and resources owned by foreigners. Interest, dividends and profits on these holdings speed dollars overseas.

A sixth source of U.S. dollars for foreigners is the American tourist. In 1962, the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis points out, Americans spent $1.9 billion in foreign countries, plus $563 million on foreign carriers. The total this year is expected to be higher.

This $2.5 billion outflow last year was only partly offset by the $1 billion foreign visitors spent here, including what they paid U.S. carriers for transportation.

Finally, the U.S. government spends billions of dollars on military programs abroad and other billions on grants and loans to other countries.

A sizable part of this is reclaimed. President Kennedy says up to 80 per cent of foreign aid is actually spent here, boosting our exports by that much.

Jerry Lewis Angry Over TV Show Cut

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Comedian Jerry Lewis, a crack on his television show snipped by network censors, says he will consider it a breach of contract if they do it again.

The American Broadcasting Co. silenced a portion of a Mort Sahl monologue Saturday when a delayed telecast was shown in the West.

Sahl said in the version beamed live to the east:

"The governor of Nevada is objecting to (Frank) Sinatra's friends—who are Sam Giancana (an alleged underworld figure) and the President of the United States."

In the taped versions, shown three hours later, the sentence was chopped after "Friends."

MOVE UP TO CHRYSLER '64

Engineered better...backed better than any car in its class

The '64 Chryslers are here: the luxurious New Yorker (above); sports-bred 300; and the surprisingly easy-to-own Newport.

Clean. Crisp. Handsome. Designed in the modern concept. Bold but not brassy. Engineered by men who have accounted for more "firsts" than any automobile maker. So well built the vital moving parts are warranted for 5 years or 50,000 miles. (Details below.)

The '64 Chryslers are full of news: there's an optional steering wheel you can adjust, up or down, to any one of seven different positions. Bucket seats are standard on 300 models (passenger's reclines).

These are the '64 Chryslers. They have no junior editions to compromise your investment. Go see them. Move up to Chrysler '64.

Solid protection for a solid investment... 5-year-50,000-mile warranty. Chrysler Corporation warrants, for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, against defects in materials and workmanship and will replace or repair at a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business, the engine block, head and internal parts, intake manifold, water pump, transmission case and internal parts (excluding manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings of its 1964 automobiles, provided the owner has the engine oil changed every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first, the oil filter replaced every second oil change and the carburetor air filter cleaned every 6 months and replaced every 2 years, and every 6 months turnshires to such a dealer evidence of performance of the required service, and requests the dealer to certify (1) receipt of such evidence and (2) the car's then current mileage.
